Caged within our world,
We are on display.
Pacing and pausing,
Thinking and absorbing,
We change as we
Watch our world change.
Each day we form
A new impression.

Sports 82

Faculty 138
Underclass 214

A front view of Falls Church High School reveals an old but proud building.

Within these walls of Falls Church High School
 Many people have walked.
 . . . Learning, teaching, meeting new people,
 Setting examples, and following orders . . .
 Years of experience have developed a set of Standard rules and regulations to follow and Obey. Students learn to respect and have Pride in their school.
 School years, grading quarters, and class periods,

Measure four years of our lives.
 Daily bus trips serve as transportation to and
 From school and mark the everyday routine.
 The familiar "bell" that signals a change in Classes also symbolizes an intense rivalry between our school and J.E.B. Stuart.
 The school building takes on a new appearance
 As a massive impression which affects the social and academic aspects of our lives.

Busses take a rest in the back parking lot during a vacation.

. . . An Idea . . .

Paper mache masks, tissue paper floats,
Are creations of creativity.
Like the hands that mold them,
They leave their impression.

Margaret Strickland and Nancy Olivola make masks in Humanities.

The Civinettes, with the help of a Civitan, prepare their float for Homecoming.

Our Varsity, J.V., and Freshman cheerleaders and our mascot kneel together to say a prayer before a playoff game.

Gathering around to share the meaning of
What is to come,
Accompanied by thoughtful faces and hopeful smiles,
Give a very positive impression of the whole.

A trusting glance proves to be an ingredient
Of what goes into displaying a daring performance,
Resulting in a spectacular impression.

The F.C. band performs their famous guillotine as a half-time highlight.

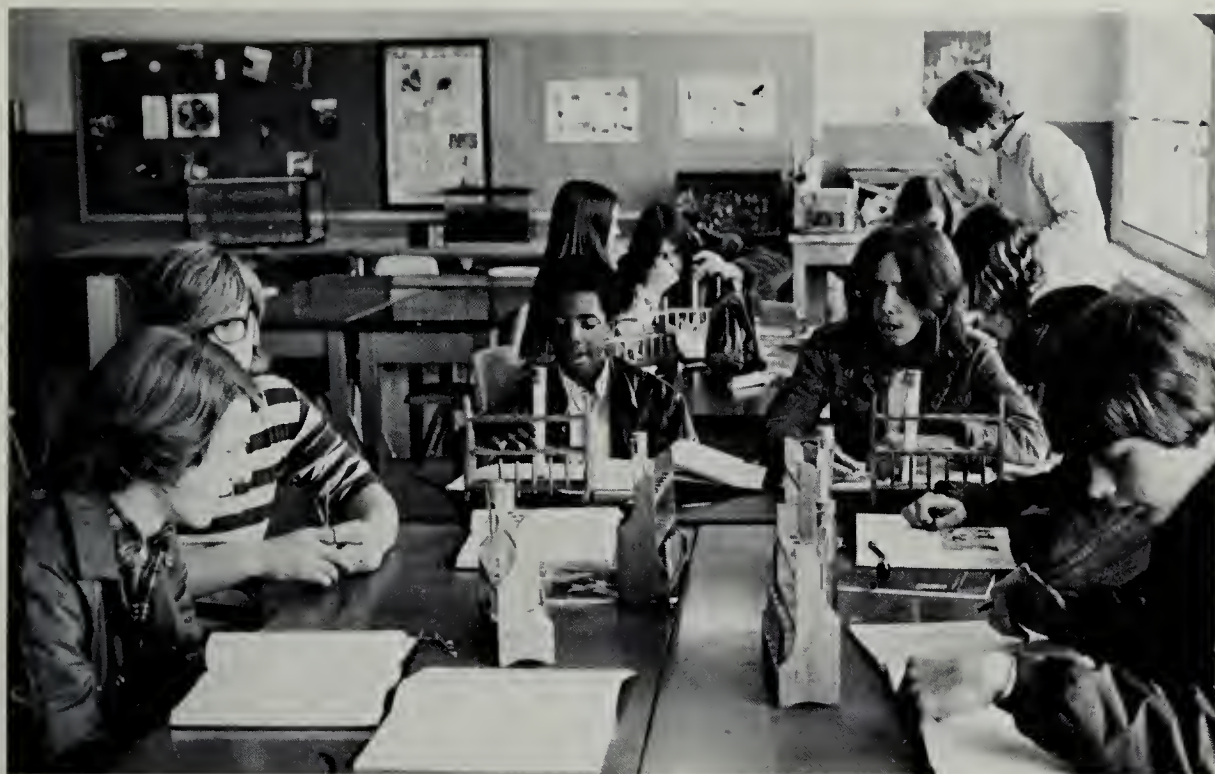

These girls learn to style hair in Cosmetology class.

Jean Ottoson's french horn holds the reflection of the crowd.

This Chemistry class performs an experiment.

. . . HOW YOU
SEE IT . . .

Teresa Richardson wears the smile of victory after a Varsity hockey game.

High school gives students
An opportunity to pursue their Own interests and establish goals.
Curricular and extra-curricular programs
Provide each student with an outlet to create
An impression upon teachers, sponsors, and peers.

Teddy Staples just loves all the attention he receives from Scott Bono and Mike Snedgen.

Craig Day seems surprised; Leanne Czarnaski seems shocked; and Brian Brilhart knows he can handle the situation.

. . . Stimulation of Senses . . .

The Varsity football players get together for breakfast at the Governor Motel before one of the state playoff games.

The mighty Jaguars take the field to start off another routine victory.

Getting together before an important activity
 Helps to strengthen the bonds of unity
 And bring out the spirit of determination
 To achieve that final goal as one.
 Forming an impression of what one can accomplish
 Stretching, straining, disciplining, exercising
 Going out and performing
 To the greatest limit of one's ability
 Reassures oneself of the impression
 He fixed in his mind
 And proves to the spectators
 The impression he has made to all.

Jeff Wagoner receives a punt as Steve Bourne closes in for protection.

David Gatton (25) rushes for yardage after a handoff from Jimmy Simpson (9) at the victorious Ft. Hunt playoff game.

Jill Tanner enjoys the magazines in our school library.

I wonder what Scott Cox sees that we don't see!

"Of course I'm cool!", grins Gary Harding.

Mrs. Blacker's reading lab is put to good use as Bo Robinson takes advantage of the specialized equipment.

Sandy Vickroy lounges in the Drama office but appears to be shy.

. . . A MOOD . . .

Faces pass through the halls,
Smiling, frowning, thoughtful, or blank.
Some stop to talk with friends,
Some remain deep in their own thoughts.
Consciously or unconsciously each reveals
His own impression.

Tim Myers tries to order a pizza during lunch.

Liz Link displays her decorated locker.

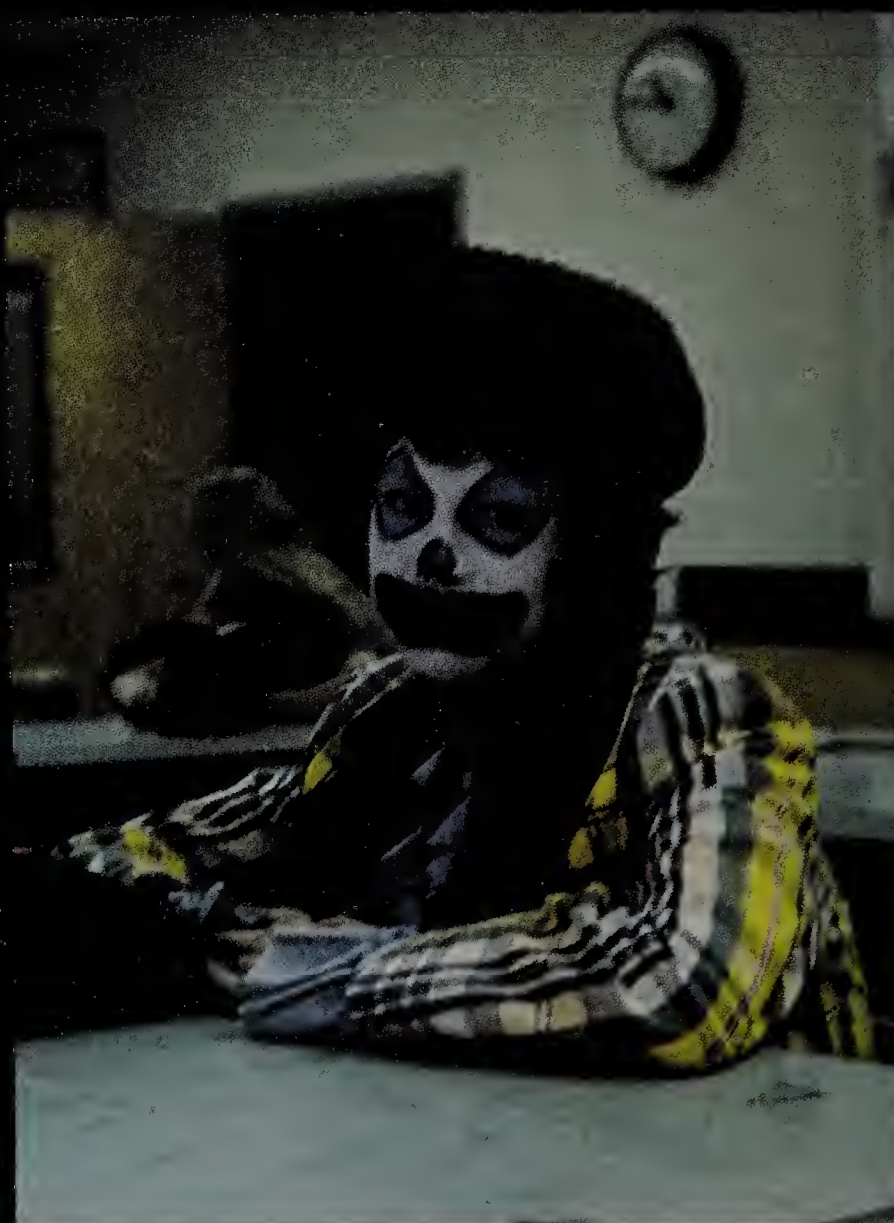

Steve Passino daydreams in class.

Jaguar mascot (Jane Scott) crowns the Homecoming queen, Jamie Baylis.

Familiar faces and places call to mind
Many memories.
What we remember today will blend and
Fade with some slight distortations;
Yet what remains illustrates our total
Impression.

Lisa Harris dresses up as a clown for Civinette try-out week.

. . . An Effect . . .

Heading into Washington, D.C. on July 4, 1976 left many people with a brilliant and memorable impression.

Mr. Powell is "creamed" in the face during the Stuart pep rally.

Vicki Houkal, Nick Nappo, and Eve Martin were among the cast of "Boyfriend", the first musical in several years.

Participating, as well as spectating, in a variety of activities allows each student to form a broader impression of his student life.

Becky O'Bryhim displays her skill in fire baton twirling during the Homecoming half-time show.

STUDENT LIFE

This spirited sophomore crowd demonstrates the overall enthusiasm expressed at pep rallies.

Up until now, Falls Church High School has never been noted for its excessive amount of spirit. But get together a championship team and watch the action and crowd response soar. A feeling of pride and determination seemed to surface at the '77 pep rallies, with the favorite chant repeatedly shouted, "We're No. 1!"

The cheerleaders put on a variety of pep rallies to increase student interest and promote school spirit. The first of them included the routine competition between the classes with candy as a reward for the "loudest" class. A "scavenger hunt" was put to the test at the homecoming pep rally. Two football players were placed in front of each class with a list of specific items to collect from their crowd. The Seniors became the winners when they collected all their items first.

The Stuart pep rally proved to be one of the most entertaining. Mr. Stepp, Mr. Powell, Mr. Stegner, Mr. Herb, and Mr. Ake were placed in front of the four classes. Students were then informed that the class with the most yell would be rewarded by having a pie pushed in the face of the teacher representing their class. This proved to be a highly successful method of producing crowd response. However, all the lucky teachers were bombarded with pies in the end.

The song "Get Ready" was played as an incitement to players at the state football championship pep rally. The fifty-five player trompled in carrying signs that spelled out a victory motive for the Jaguars.

Pep rallies provided recognition for everyone, including girls sports. The coaches of each team were given opportunities to speak and give their players and the students a pep talk. Pep rallies proved to be an important way to increase school spirit and promote pride throughout the year.

Pep Rallies Show Increased Enthusiasm

Mr. Stegner get what the band people feel he deserves.

Mr. Stepp really gets into his pie!

Coaches Loving and Herb show their school spirit by cheerfully participating in pep rallies.

"What have I done to deserve this?" exclaims Mr. Powell as Steve Bourne smashes a pie in his face.

FIRST MUSICAL IN YEARS PROVES TO BE A BIG HIT

“Starting off the school year with such an exciting production as THE BOYFRIEND makes the enthusiasm for the remainder of the year so high that it’s unbelievably breath-taking.

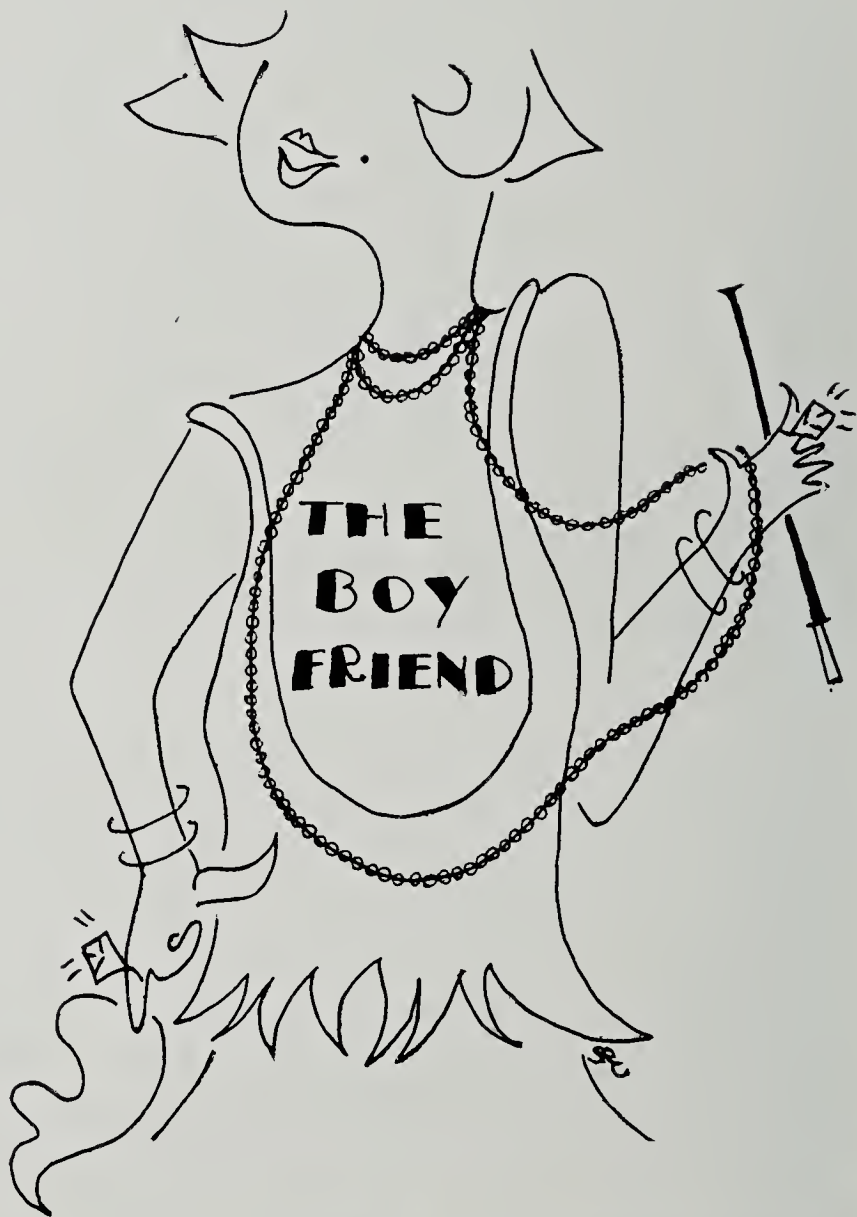

George Robert Allen

“It was an exciting production — brilliantly cast and directed, superbly performed!”

Judy Guryansky

HOMECOMING COURT

A colossal victory for the Jags over Madison set the mood for the glamorous Homecoming weekend. In the float competition, which took place during halftime, there were so many sharp-looking floats that it was hard to pick a winner. The Band float however, came out on top with the Junior and Senior class floats alongside it in terms of excellence. The excitement of the halftime show was further accentuated with the crowning of Jamie Baylis as Queen. The following evening the couples danced to the high quality sound of "Rainbow." The total success of the weekend will leave a lasting impression for all involved.

The Senior Class put on a very successful Sadie Hawkins dance in November. There were 19 characters, more than any in previous years. Together the characters grubbed over $1,100 during five school days, adding substantially to the $450 worth of dance tickets sold.

Sound Tech provided the music, while the Sadie Hawkins characters square danced in the cafeteria lobby. Armloads of hay were thrown everywhere as people eventually participated in the fun of hay fights.

Tammy Turner as "Mammy Yokum" rocks to the beat of Sound Tech.

Paula Riley gets made up for her Indian character.

Jeff Evans gets caught in the midst of a hay fight.

THE MOUSETRAP

The Falls Church High School Drama Club presented Agatha Christie's "The Mousetrap" in December. This thrilling murder mystery has been the biggest running play in England and for good reasons. It is a thrilling, intriguing tale of a pychopathic killer whose diabolical plans for revenge bring the guests of an English boarding house into suspicion and fear of one another.

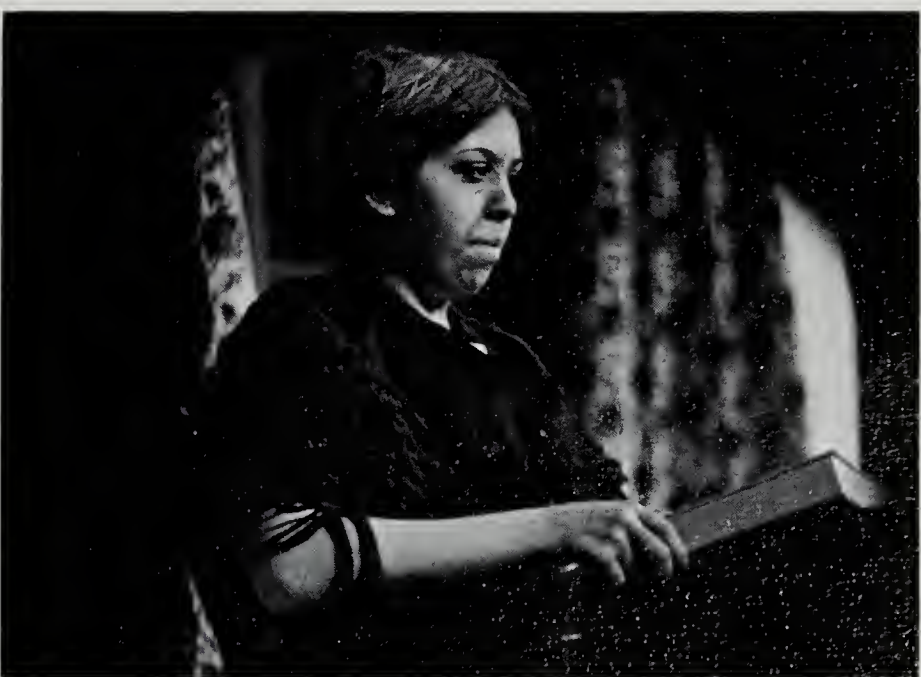

"A prospective victim or a murderess?", wonders Giles of Miss Casewell.

A suspicious Christopher Wren worries Mrs. Ralston.

Excellent performances were given by freshman, Tom Davis, juniors, Marla Levin, Shawn Costello, Tony Burnisal and Jim McOmber, and seniors, Sandi Vickroy, and Roman Dial. The success of the play is also due to the indispensable stage crew, the director, Mr. Allen and assistant director Gigi Cashion.

Talented Tammy Hull Crowned Miss FCHS

Tammy Hull, Miss Falls Church High School

The Drama Department was proud to present the school's annual Miss Falls Church High Pageant. Under the direction of Mr. George Allen, nineteen participants were judged on the basis of talent, beauty, poise, and charm. Superintendent S. John Davis was among the honored judges.

After a few minor technical difficulties, the pageant ran smoothly with Keith Lundien as master of ceremonies. The girls made their entrance doing dances portraying different eras in American history. Each modeled both a casual and formal outfit. The top eight finalists displayed their talent, the highlight of which was Tammy Hull's performance of "Dreams," a song to which she composed both the music and lyrics. The final selection of the winners was based on impromptu questioning of the top four finalists. Miss Tammy Hull, a junior, was crowned Miss FCHS. Senior Sandy Zeltvay received first runner up, with Lou Becker, a junior, as second runner up and senior Sue Crocker as third runner up. Gabby Mirov was awarded Miss Congeniality.

The eight semi-finalists await the announcement of the top four.

The 1977 Sweetheart Dance was a huge success. The theme for this special night was "Best of My Love." Music was provided by The Brad Smiley Band. The cafeteria was gaily decorated with red hearts and silver tin foil covered cardboard hearts hanging from the ceiling. The highlight of the night was the crowning of Lori Waggener by Pam Mattson, last year's Sweetheart Queen.

Gigi Cashion does a good characterization of Joan of Arc.

Rusty Fallon gives Sue Bloom's face a few final touches.

The Drama Department's third production of the year under the direction of George Allen was "Joan of Lorraine," a drama depicting the life of Joan of Arc. "Joan of Lorraine" was a play within a play, so that not only was the life of Joan of Arc shown, but so was a behind the scene look of how a play is produced. There were a few hard times during rehearsals, such as Joan's costumes, but in the end it was without a doubt one of the finest productions of the year.

The special event of the year, '77 Prom, was held at the elegant Sheraton International in Reston. The sponsoring Junior class picked out the romantic setting with a huge dance floor, lounges, and big bay windows overlooking a pool. "Hard Cider" provided fine music from 8:00-1:00 for the couples all decked out in tuxedos and long dresses. "Poems, Prayers, and Promises" provided a most appropriate theme. The evening was further enhanced by the presentation of the court, with Miss Paula Rehrig as 1977 Prom Queen.

"Now I told you that the Club Christmas party fund didn't allow for that kind of refreshment," scolds Ellen Murry to Cathie Arundel.

ORGANIZATIONS

The many organizations at our school fulfill one's need for involvement, and helps one to pursue his interests. The various groups work in unique ways to develop an Impression upon our school and community.

David Tolman demonstrates how the Boys' State participants really picked up his life.

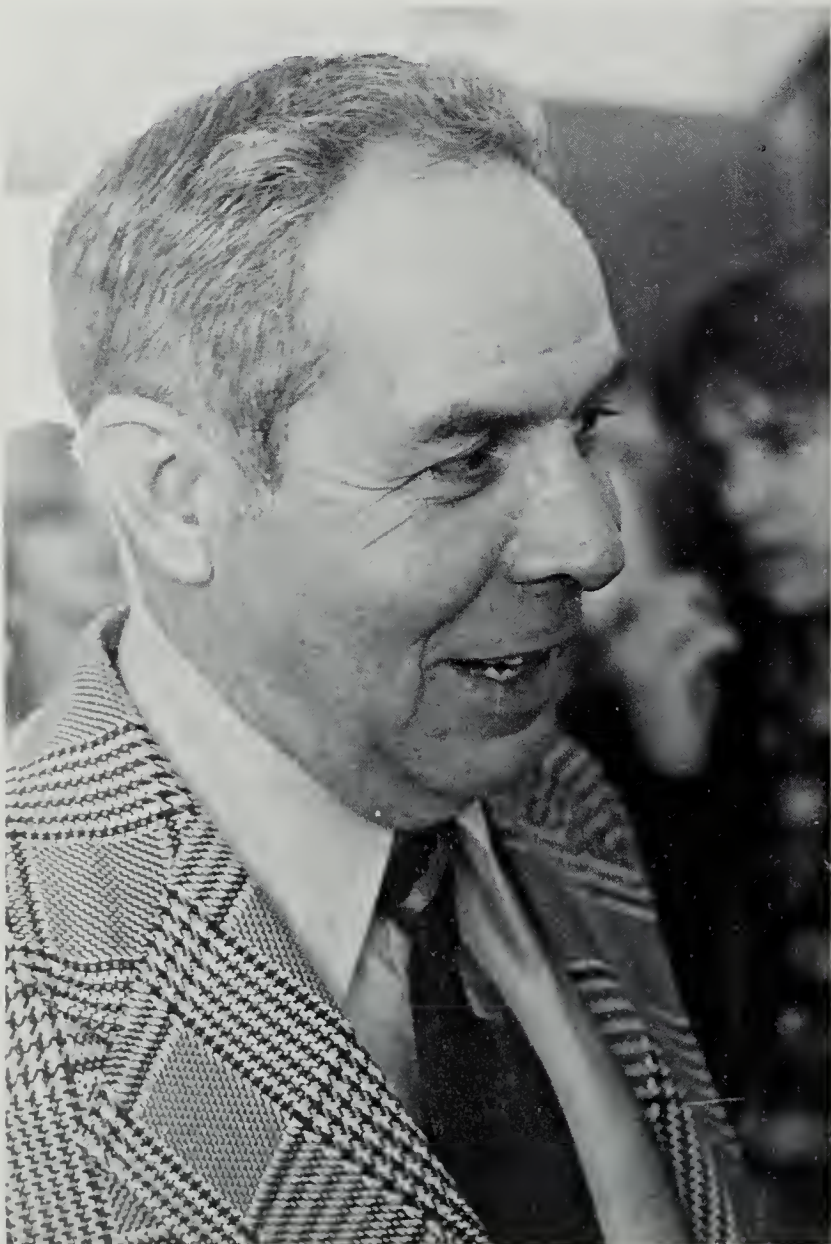

"Now that I have your undivided attention, girls, let's proceed with our important business discussion," pronounces Civinette president Cindy Bocock.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT PROMOTES SCHOOL PRIDE

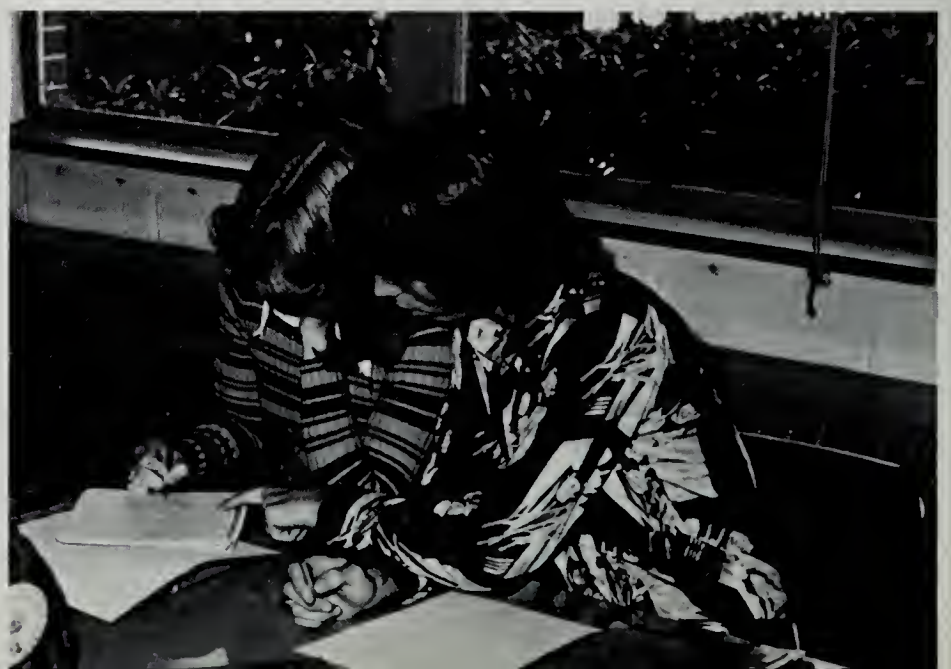

Kathy Hartell, Vice-President of Curricular Affairs; David Tolman, President; Erin Flynn, Secretary- Treasurer; Carol Kondracki, Parliamentarian.

Mr. Campbell, Student Government Sponsor

The 1976-77 Student Government provided a very relaxed and happy atmosphere for the students at Falls Church. The S.G. room was a place of many conversations, meetings, homework sessions, and even the watching of a variety of game shows and soap operas. Student Government worked to raise school pride and involvement in many ways. One in particular was the reinstating of decorating halls during pride week. S.G. also continued its many traditions by providing the students with enjoyable assemblies, such as Desperado, and the Navy Port Authority, and by sponsoring a very successful magazine drive, Sweetheart Dance and can food drive. The 1976-77 S.G., without a doubt constantly worked for the good of the students.

The Legislature, which consists of 5 legislators from each class, vote on many important matters that arise throughout the year. A few of the matters that our legislators passed were the purchasing of two school flags and the allotment of between one and two thousand dollars to purchase new text books for various departments in the school. Another important allotment was that of a hundred dollars that was donated so that our great football team's game could be televised.

Another important group of people in the school, that are not always recognized, are the Committee Chairmen. These people help S.G. in the heading up of such things as organizing dances, running elections, and keeping the various calendars in the school up to date. Without this group of people many S.G. projects could not be successful.

SAC HELPS IMPLEMENT SEX ED.

The Student Advisory Council put forth most of its efforts towards the implementation of a Sex Education Program for Fairfax County Schools next year. Several of the SAC members spoke before the school board on this subject. This was the major factor which swayed the board to begin the program in the fall of 1977.

The highlight of the year was the election of the Student School Board Representative. SAC members spent the entire day at Fairfax High School nominating the candidate of their choice.

Kathy Holmes starts work on SAC projects late in the summer.

DRAMA CLUB PRODUCES SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCES

"To be or not to be" is never a question in the FCHS Drama Department. Everybody is usually whatever he wants to be and that always means a lot of fun! Everybody enjoys himself even though a lot of work is put into all the Drama efforts. This year, the Drama Club participated in a big hit musical called "The Boyfriend" and put on a mystery called "The Mousetrap." They preformed a Halloween Safety Program for several elementary schools and built a haunted house for a community Halloween project. The club also backed up the "Miss Falls Church" contest. After long, hard weeks of work on shows and classes, several members of the Drama Club relaxed by taking an enjoyable trip to Ford's Theater to see "The Vanities."

A favorite pastime of Drama Club members is to visit the Green Room in Studio 173 to rehearse for plays, study homework, read, chat with old friends and make new ones. "Green Room" is an age-old tradition in dramatics, used to bring cast and crew together before a play. The FCHS Drama Club likes to keep this fellowship all the time, so their "Green Room" is always open to anyone who needs a friend.

The FCHS Drama Club owes a great deal to their best-loved "Grallen" for all he's done. Without Mr. Allen, the Drama Club, the Drama Department and the Thespians just wouldn't be the same. "Grallen" lives and always shall in all the halls of Falls Church High School!

The Drama Club members were really fantastic this year and they all really "broke a leg!"

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club attended athletic events throughout the year. They were always there to show their pride and to give their support at both boys and girls sports events. All through the year they had bake sales, and gum sales in order to raise funds for various sports. They also acted as guides at the P.T.A.'s "Back-to-School Night." The Pep Club was without a doubt, an asset to Falls Church athletics.

Second Row: Laurie Karlson, Vicki Blann, Dottie Cochran, Nancy Waller, Lisa Sprouse, Lisa Smith, Wendy Witz, Barbara Stryker. Third Row: (Freshmen) Page Lee, co-capt.; Alison Meader, Karen Pieri, Jill Murphy, Brenda Stewart, Cindy Lloyd, capt.; Melanie Tschida, Jennifer Osburn. Fourth Row: (JV) Keely Flynn, Karen Gwinn, Pam Jordan, Stacy Hart, Steffie Moreau, co-capt.; Susan Keller, capt.; Janet Tolman, Mary Henderson, Kelly Simonds, Julie Sawyer.

The cheerleaders made quite an impression by being kept busy during their entire season. They sponsored a dance featuring "Sound Tech" at the beginning of the year. During the months of September, October, and November, they spent a great deal of their time decorating the boy's locker room and buses, making locker stickers and banners, and attending practices . . . There were also more pep rallies than usual to create!

The months after football season also kept the cheerleaders quite busy with wrestling matches and basketball and baseball games. The cheerleaders not only supported boy's sports, but could be found yelling and jumping for the girls as well. Cheerleading this year proved to be hectic at times, but nevertheless exciting and fun.

Frosh, JV, and Varsity add wind to the kickoff.

The National Honor Society consisted of approximately 200 members. They held meetings once a month to discuss service projects for the school. The NHS provided tutors for students who needed help in academic subjects and helped distribute report cards each quarter. They also maintain the honor rolls, keeping them up to date at all times.

Besides providing services for FCHS, the NHS is designed to promote academic excellence. Inductions were held twice, in the fall and spring for all students who has at least a 3.4 average. Each year, one exceptional student is chosen for a scholarship to help in furthering his/her education.

French Honor Society

The French Honor Society was comprised of about thirty people who had studied French for three or more years. The various activities which the society performed were connected in some way with that of the French life style. Thus, through venturing into restaurants and preparing different cuisines for the annual Christmas Tea, they learned to appreciate and understand French living.

They also indulged in various cultural activities, watching French movies and visiting the Kennedy Center to see a concert.

The Spanish Honor Society started another successful year with the annual candle-light initiation ceremony, bringing in many energetic new members. For added enjoyment, the club had a Christmas dinner which featured many well-known Spanish foods as well as festive Spanish music. A trip to an excellent Spanish restaurant further enhanced the club's yearly program. The Spanish Club bought medals for the Spanish V students and for the best students of each level of Spanish.

The 76-77 Jaguar Journal staff has once again provided the students of FCHS with a monthly publication. The Journal has continued to offer the paper free of charge and has welcomed the students to voice their opinion on any issue.

With support from the S.G., P.T.A., and Fairfax County, the financial problems of the Journal were reduced considerably. A Journalism II class was offered for the first time at FCHS. The class played the major role in producing each issue and made deadlines much easier for the staff to meet.

The Journal's goals this year were to publish a paper that followed good journalistic style as well as produce a paper which would inform and interest the student body.

Interest in the paper and journalism appears to be growing. This year's Journal staff, under the direction of Mr. Whitworth, was larger and more active than in the past.

Editor, Geoff Brunner says, "You can not print that kind of thing in the newspaper."

Joe Inqui distributes his time between newspaper and year-book.

Yearbook Staff Strives To Meet Deadlines

The yearbook staff faced numerous problems in producing the product you are now holding in your hands. As deadlines approached the nights grew longer and many dedicated staff members stayed up long hours rushing to prepare the required amount of pages. Organization was often a lacking characteristic of the staff, and phrases such as "What happened to that club candid?", "We don't have a write-up!" and "Where did you put my layout?" were common among the staff. Photographers often stayed hours in the darkroom producing desperately needed prints at the last minute.

The loose ends, however, finally seemed to fall in place, and the staff, with all its frustrations mixed with enjoyable times, got together an account of the 76-77 year at Falls Church High.

DEBATE TEAM MAKES THEIR POINT

The Debate team, growing in number, took on their district meets with great enthusiasm. Team members worked hard preparing themselves for upcoming meets. These preparations involved many hours of careful research into various subjects, one in particular being that of Penal Reform.

Forensics members prepared their presentations in prose, poetry, and oratory skills.

"The competition is tough, but the rewards are great. This year's team has been very successful, and the future looks even better," comments Alison Evans, president.

Formed to help participants find suitable careers, the Work Experience Career Exploration Program provided invaluable information in acquiring and retaining jobs. Ninth graders met four hours a day and each worked approximately twenty hours a week. The instruction focused mainly on distributive education and math abilities, imperative skills for many careers.

For added Enjoyment, WECEP students took a number of field trips. One to be remembered was in going to the air and space museum and the F.B.I. Building in Washington D.C. The students also collected and repaired old toys and sent them to the Head Start day care at Timber Lane Elementary school.

The International Relation Club participated in Model United Nation sessions and in other activities related to world affairs. The club went to a model world disarmament conference in which schools from around Fairfax County participated. Members of the club did extensive research into weapons and their central and into the procedure for carrying out an international diplomatic negotiation.

FLEOA AND RIFLE CLUB WORK ON GUN SAFETY

The Future Law Enforcement Officers of America have worked toward achieving their goals of orienting students interested in careers in law and law enforcement. They have worked to establish the confidence and help of the public in the service dedicated to the protection of life and property. The club has participated in several police displays at local shopping centers and gone on a field trip to Boling Air Force Base to inspect the Air Force Security Police.

The F.L.E.O.A. has also worked toward crime prevention in their neighborhoods by distributing pamphlets published by the police department. Through numerous other community services the club has strived toward giving each individual a positive insight and deeper understanding of this important and necessary profession.

The Rifle Club taught its members how to safely operate a rifle. Those who showed a good ability in marksmanship were chosen to be on the rifle team.

The Outing Club was established to provide a means for people to enjoy outdoor sports. Its main purpose was to organize trips to various places of interest for hiking, climbing, repelling, backpacking, spelunking, and white water rafting. The Outing Club went spelunking twice in a cave near Harper's Ferry, West Virginia. They went on biking trips to popular trails including Old Ray Mountain. The Outing Club has a sizeable membership, and received recognition for winning the canned food drive.

The Soccer Club is a fairly new organization formed to promote girls in soccer. The club met and worked out regularly to stay in shape for their approaching season.

GAA PROVIDES FUNDS

The Girls Athletic Association has had a winning year. Among the many projects and fund raisers, they have sponsored, they worked in the concession stands and sold custom-made jewelry. Such fund raisers enabled them to buy needed athletic equipment for girls' sports, which was their main purpose. The GAA also supported girls' athletics with a lot of enthusiasm, by always being around to keep their spirits up and winning.

The Future Business Leaders of America Club is a chapter member of a nation wide club whose goals are to promote and provide for the advancement of business. Students used their business skills to compete in club sponsored typing, shorthand, math and spelling contests. Winners on the school level advanced to regional contests.

FBLA sponsored "Christmas Grams" which provided students with the opportunity to send candy and messages to friends. A dance featuring "Sound Tech" in January brought the club over $500. FBLA also provided a tea for the secretaries in April. Members participated in services such as visiting the old folks home.

VICA Students Refine Their Business Skills Through Competition

The Vocational Industrial Cooperative Association is an important program in the business department. This program offers students an opportunity to gain valuable knowledge and experience in the business world while at the same developing leadership qualities. These members work to refine their business skills through competition in such fields as advertising display and sales. In all, 1977 has proved to be a very profitable year for each individual involved in this organization.

VICA students gather around Mr. Beto for a chat.

DECA Participates In District And Regional Activities

DECA is the co-curricular club for Distributive Education. During the school year, DECA has sponsored a canned food drive, a toy round-up, and several social activities.

The club helped students to further their education into management. The DECA students took part in participating in district, regional, and state activities.

The highlight of the year for the Fashion Merchandising classes was their trip to New York. They visited the 7th Avenue and Broadway fashion designer showrooms. They also visited the offices of several top magazines.

Spanish Club Has Active Year

Sitting: Mrs. Monick, Tracey Renfro, Secretary; Anita Brown, Pres.; Lynn Earnest, Treas. Kneeling: Jeanette Jankowski, Patrick McNeman, Bonnie Montali, Jeannie LaViolette, Laura Hernandez, Glori Gurri. Standing: Elenor Cilinski, Cheryl Reynolds, Chris Rhew, Shari Endress, Maria Mezaros, Chris Ramos, Theresa Wojtowicz

Smiles are abundant as Spanish Club members discuss plans for their approaching party.

Ms. Monick gladly gives suggestions.

The Spanish Club accomplished several things throughout the year, including a taco party, several bake sales, viewing a couple of Spanish movies, and making a piñato for the language festival at Christmas, in which the French and German Clubs also participated.

The club donated $5.00 for the televising of the state football game. Members also wrote their own constitution with the motto "¡Viva el Espanol!", which means "Long live Spanish!" They visited 'El tio Pepe', a Spanish restaurant, and several members participated in the National Spanish Eram.

French Club Broadens Its Knowledge of French Culture

The French Club met each month to further their interest and knowledge of the French language and culture. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Walbridge, the members participated in a French dinner and had a Christmas party. They also enjoyed going out occasionally and sampling French cuisine at different French restaurants in the area.

French Club members discuss plans for the upcoming dinner.

Latin Club

The Latin Club still burns it's torch! The club won the annual "Pride Week" hall decorating contest and raised more money than any other organizaiton to help televise the State Championship football game.

The group's calendar was not filled with all work and no play! They also held events filled with outrageous fun and excitement such as skating trips, car washes, and their annual Spring Orgy!

"Study Latin? Are You Kidding?"

"I think this is left over from ancient Rome," comments Mr. Ochse.

German Club Learns German Culture

"You say Hansel and Gretel were here?" exclaims Ms. Guryansky.

The German Club goes on a picnic.

The German Club brought a little of the fatherland to Falls Church High School. The members spent the year attempting to learn the lifestyles and aspects of the cultures of the German people. They sponsored bake sales which featured German cuisine and had an Adventshaftee which proved to be a great success. The German Club also visited the German School in Washington, D.C., the German Embassy and served refreshments at the chess club match against the German School. Other activities included addresses by guest speakers, bavarian dinners and a picnic.

This year's German Club proved to be an active one. They did indeed, through their bake sales and activities give F.C.H.S. a small taste of the fatherland.

Civinettes

The Civinettes started out the year with forty-five hard-working juniors and seniors. They presented a float, "Goose the Warhawks," for the homecoming activities and also baked goods for the dance. Numerous other school activities and services were performed, such as painting trash cans by the football field, decorating the halls for pride week, cleaning the school grounds, and collecting cans for the canned food drive.

The Civinettes also provided services outside the school. They helped run the concession stand at George Mason High School, and collected door to door for the March of Dimes. A Christmas party for handicapped and mentally retarded people was held in the Little Theater.

Fourth Row: Donny Entsminger, Frank Simonds, Rick McCue, Jimmy Simpson.

The Civitans, a service club historically loosely organized, this year tried to change its image. They set themselves to the task of cleaning up Webber Stadium after each home football game, a monumental job, and co-sponsored a drive to collect money for the Heart Foundation. They also sponsored a dance late in the winter and organized a basketball game against WEEL radio which proved to be very profitable. This year provided a good start for a more active Civitan Club.

The Keyettes Have Many Successful Money-Making Projects

As the school year opened the Keyettes sold Halloween candy-grams which proved to be very profitable. The proceeds purchased ten turkeys along with three hundred cans of food collected by the members. This was donated to the Salvation Army. It provided dinner for numerous needy families.

At Christmas time, the Keyettes had a party for the elderly at the nursing home. Fifty toys were also donated to the WECEP toy program. Active in the cancer and Red Cross drives, the Keyettes raised money through yard sales and Valentine candy-grams.

The Keyettes proved to be a truly involved service club within the school and community.

The Key Club which is still in the process of recovering from two successive years of inactivity strove to increase membership and interest in the club. This goal has been partially successful as the membership has increased. They have been busy this year, sponsoring the Bloodmobile and contributing to the canned food drive. The club has also been busy raising money for the State football game and for Children's Hospital.

TABS COMPLETE SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The Torch and Banner Service Club progressed through the year with numerous social events as well as planned community and school projects. They continued the tradition of "Teacher of the Month" as well as aiding their honorary "grandmother," Ms. Scott. Tabs donated money for televising the State Football Game. In December, they caroled for Christmas and donated money toward the eighteen special beds needed by Children's Hospital.

In January, Tabs collected for the March of Dimes. All in all, it was an impressive and successful year for Tabs.

FALLS CHURCH HIGH SCHOOL BAND REVISES STYLE

Under the field direction of drum major Scott Bono, the Falls Church High School Band, 180 strong, marched themselves into another victorious year. Despite sight objections from band members, Mr. James Stegner decided to revise the style of the marching band to a position somewhat like a drum and bugle corps. However, the controversies soon melted into success as the band members buckled down to a lot of hard work, and dedication.

One of the many new dimensions added to the marching band was feature twirler, Becky O'Bryhim. Becky not only showed her excellence on the field, but also entered many outside twirling competitions. As a result she earned the title of "Most Outstanding High School Majorette in Virginia."

The revision of the flag corps contributed greatly to the band's general effect. With the addition of four more regular flags and four alternates, the girls through grinding effort and extra sectionals, were able to become a precise corps unit.

The flag corps exhibits pride during halftime shows.

FCHS BAND CONSIDERED ONE OF THE BEST ON THE EAST COAST

The flag corps illustrates the concentration needed for precision.

The excellence of the marching band was exemplified when they filed onto the field in Abbeville, S.C. Competing against 30 other bands, the FCHS band received the Grand Champion Award, and the Mayor's Trophy for their efforts. The band then traveled to Lynchburg, Va. for the "Lynchburg Classic" and captured 2nd place. The trip to West Va. in late September was an exciting excursion for the band members as they stayed in the homes of the band members of West Fairmont High School. At the Robinson Marching Spectacular, the band received the title "Best of Bands," Scott Bono received "Best Drum Major," and Becky O'Bryhim was awarded "Best Majorette." In late January, the band hosted their own concert which was held in the main gym. In the spring the band traveled to the Kentucky Derby Band Festival. All in all, the year was one of adaption to new ways and dedication to old strengths.

During the winter months, the marching band moves inside and forms the Symphonic and Concert bands. The Falls Church Symphonic band is comprised of 75 members who are well known for their playing ability.

The Concert band is made up of approximately 85 marching band members who did not qualify for symphonic band. The Concert band operates as a feeder for the Symphonic band and members may challenge up into the Symphonic band.

Both bands compete in the Band Festival held in early March where they receive ratings as to their ability. Members of these bands are also able to try-out for All-Regional band which entitles them to also compete for an All-State band position.

In its second year of existence, the Falls Church Stage Band has proven itself once again. Among many competitions and superior ratings received this year, the Yorktown Jazz Festival was a fine example of superior jazz interpretation.

The Stage Band consists of seven saxaphones, five trombones, six trumpets, bass guitar, rhythm guitar, a piano players and two drum set players. Through the year the band played for many community activities such as dances and civic association meetings. It was also used as a recruiting tool for Intermediate Bands.

The mighty Jaguars played the finest football ever and ended the season with the best won-loss record in the history of the school. After waltzing through the regular season, (and being victorious in all but their game against Stuart), the Jaguars advanced to the regional playoffs where they defeated the Yorktown Patriots and then the Fort Hunt Federals to capture the regional crown. In the state semi-final game at Woodson High School, the Jags crushed the E.C. Glass Hill-toppers. At last the Jags had gained a place in the most important game of the season: The State Championship. The Jaguars were beaten in the state final, but their play did not reflect their potential. Although the defeat to the Bethel Bruins was disappointing, Falls Church High School could not have asked for a better season, or a better team, or a better, more dedicated group of men.

The Jag's offense provided one of the most potent attacks in the Northern Region. Coach Dick's veer offense was put to practice in a manner rarely seen among the high school ranks, completely dominating many of their opponents. During the season, the Jags scored 273 points, a mark not matched by any other team in the entire region.

The offensive backfield, led by standout halfbacks Charlie Gray and Dave Gatton and quarterback Jim Simpson provided the team with the speed necessary to make the veer offense work. Other members of the backfield included senior Ed Yarbrough and junior John Buchan.

The offensive line, coached by Bob Herb, performed the duties of blocking would-be tacklers. The line, led by senior center Buck Methfessel, and tackles Melvin Martin and Steve Swankowski, dominated opposing defensive lines. Other defensive linemen include seniors Skip Richards and Wayne Jenkins and junior Mike Staples.

Flanker Jeff Wagoner and ends Norman Burwick and Doug West provided fans with numerous spectacular catches.

Being smaller than most offenses, Wally's Wild Ones (the defense), relied on quickness and experience to dominate their opponents, holding them to a very stingy 124.4 yards total offense per game.

The defensive line was a standout in itself. It's members included seniors Mark Askins, Frank Simonds, and Larry Epard and juniors Jim Stannard and Mike Louis. Together they built a formidable wall for opposing offensives. Ted Staples and Don Entsminger added concrete to the wall.

The defensive backfield of Bill Epling, Steve Bourne, Scott Stout and John Kimmer stymied opposing offensive attacks to a mere 37.8 passing yards per game.

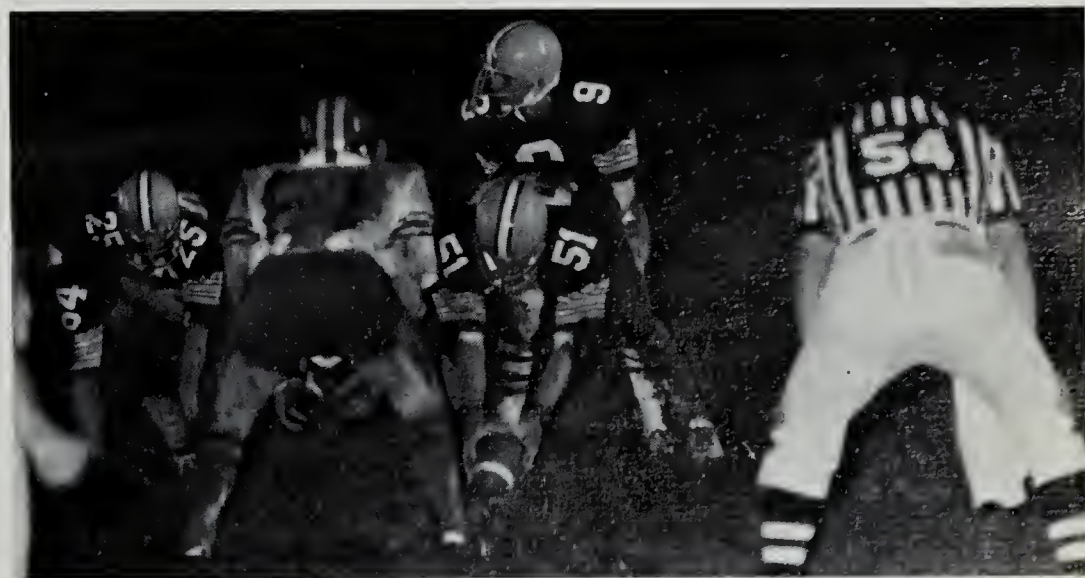

In summary, the entire team seemed to shine this year and was a source of pride for the whole school.

J.V. STRUGGLES WITH SMALL SIZE

In the last couple years the Junior Varsity team has been small in size, and this year was no exception. They had a rough season as they struggled to a 2-6 record. The team's only success was due to the evasive running of Jeff Harris and Gary Beach. Scott Shifflett did a good job at quarterback and is expected to help the varsity squad next year, but had difficulty in moving his team up and down the field.

The defensive team also had some fine players which should help the varsity next year. The team was led by Don Bruch, Kevin Kiggins, and Jeff Schrader.

Coach Herb is impressed with the idea that after the J.V. players do a lot of weight lifting this summer, they should do well on the next year's varsity.

The Freshman Football Team had a disappointing season. Unlike the tradition of Falls Church in which outstanding freshman football teams are not an unusual occurrence, this year's freshman team worked to attain a 2-4 record. There were some bright spots in the season though, as runningback Mike Grayson broke loose some long runs to help his team stay in many games.

"The defense was good," says Coach McCulloch, "but they just gave up too much yardage."

GIRLS TENNIS TAKES DISTRICTS

Mary Ellen Bennett tries to scare her opponents.

Girls sports have improved dramatically through the last couple of years. One such example is Girl's Tennis Team, which swept the Potomac District this year with a 9-1 record.

There were many good tennis players on the team but there were a few who excelled more than others in district play. Those girls were Carol Daniels — number one in singles competition, and her sister Mary Daniels — third in singles. In the doubles department Carol and Mary Daniels teamed up to take first in doubles and Pam Ryan and Mary Ellen Bennett took second in the tournament.

Falls Church sent Carol and Mary Daniels on to the Regional Tournament where they took a third in doubles and Carol Daniels took a fourth in singles.

Diane West shows excellent form as she dribbles toward her goal.

Sassy Schaffstall stands ready to prevent her opposition from scoring a goal.

The Varsity team gets together for a half-time huddle.

Some of the girls bundle up before one of the cold-weather games.

After a somewhat slow start, the Varsity Field Hockey team finished second in the Potomac District. Despite the fact that there were only three returning players, the team was able to combine skills and work well together, ending with a 3-3-2 record.

It seems as though hockey is becoming a popular sport. During this season, the first night game was played, which will pave the way for more night games next season.

The J.V. Hockey team also came out on top with a 5-3-0 record. Miss Pat Jones did an excellent job in working with the athletes. The hard work displayed by both J.V. and Varsity Hockey players proves exactly how competitive the sport can be.

CROSS COUNTRY SUFFERS WITH YOUNG TEAM

Dave Goodwin knows how it feels to be alone as he goes on to victory.

The 1976 Cross Country team ended their season with a disappointing 1-6 record. They were a very young team with only one returning runner, Homer McElroy. The outlook for next year is very good with only one runner graduating. The team did produce two outstanding runners who placed in districts: Homer McElroy received eighth in district and Sam Bailey placed eleventh.

Mark Moran gets congratulated as he reaches the finish line.

Varsity Wrestlers Pin Up Good Season

The Varsity Wrestling Team had a very rewarding season, though it was somewhat of an uphill battle at times. They wrapped up their regular grappling season with an 8-4 record, the losses all being close. The team was victorious in all district matches, enabling them to uphold the amazing winning streak varsity wrestling has been able to obtain by going undefeated against district teams for the last seven years. Falls Church placed second in the Christmas Tournament, missing the top spot by only a few points. Champions from this Falls Church Invitational were Senior Bob Passino, 105, Junior Sam Smith at 126, and Junior John Hanrahan, 155, all rated high in the state.

Bob Passino ended his season with an unprecedented 11-0 record. A tremendous competitor and team leader, he has gone undefeated in dual meets for three years, taking all honors. John Hanrahan was very close behind, finishing with an outstanding 10-1 season. Strong contenders in the state were Steve Passino, 119, Turner Kobayashi, 115, Robbie Mowson, 132, Matt McQuillen, 138, and Jim Meadows, 145. Rounding up the varsity line-up were Floyd Monroe, 98, Mark Springston, 167, Jim Stannard, 185, and Unlimited Charlie Allen and Steve Swankowski.

For the second year in a row, the team proudly walked away with the district championship. Individual winners

Passino, Hanrahan Win State Championship

Four Falls Church wrestlers advanced to the State Wrestling Tournament in Richmond: Bob Passino, 112; Turner Kobayashi, 105; Sam Smith, 126; and John Hanrahan, 155. These wrestlers worked tremendously and proved it by walking away with the 3rd in State trophy, missing first place by a mere 5 points and scoring more points than any other team in Northern Va. Falls Church proudly came out with two state champions, the most any school in the tournament produced: Bob Passino and John Hanrahan. Sam Smith attained 5th place. All these wrestlers are highly commended for their diligence, hard work and effort which produced these fantastic results.

WRESTLING STATE CHAMPIONS: Bob Passino, 112, John Hanrahan, 155.

JV Wrestling Has Undefeated Season

JV Wrestling: Jeff Artman, Keith Tasker, Dennis Fern, Bob Rike, Tim Martin, Karl House, Steve Epling.

JV Wrestling had a tremendous year, going undefeated in all of their eight matches. They won the JV District meet, held at Falls Church, coming out with seven champions. They also came out victorious at the West Springfield Quad meet. Bright spots on the team were Bob Rike, Doug Tew, Carl House, Steve Epling, Frank Genduso, Burt Clayborne, and Gary Harding.

Varsity Basketball Has Rough Season

Varsity: Kneeling: Darrin White, Mgr.; Chet Olive, Jeff Waggoner, Jeff Walter, Bob Schlottman; Standing: Glenn Bryan, Brian Burke, Mike Louis, Bruce Webb, Robbie Woolf.

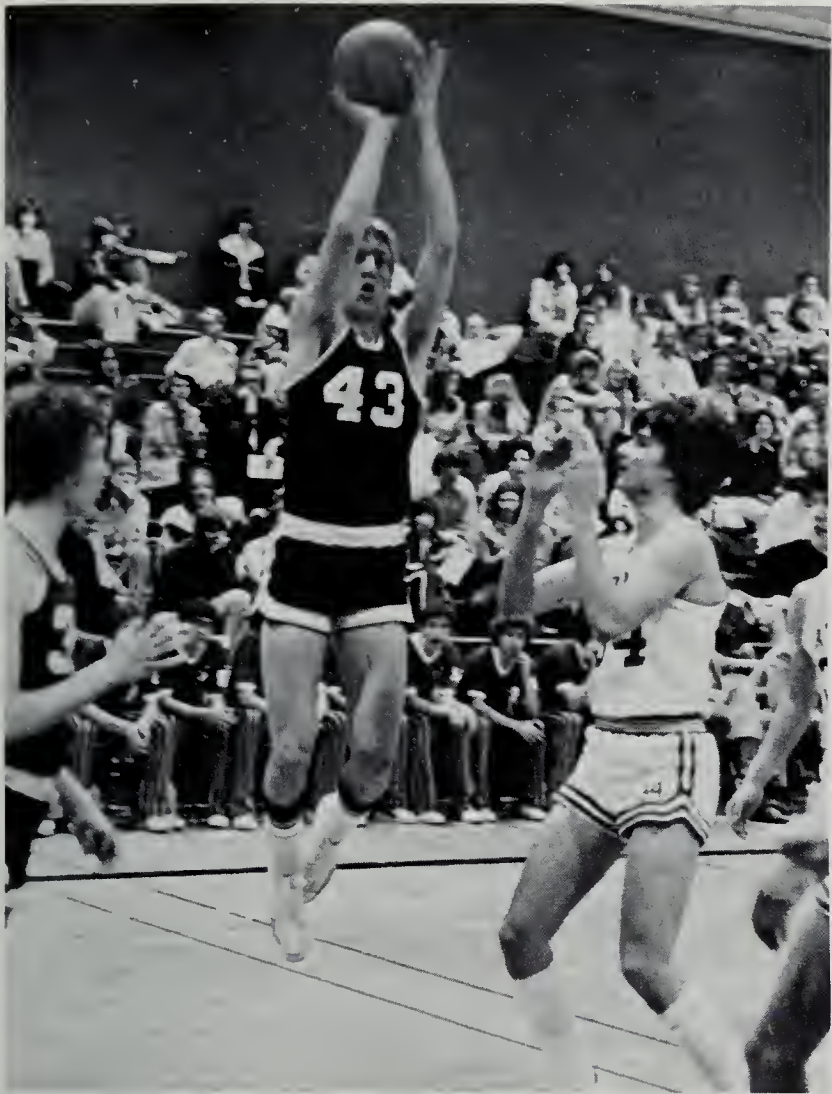

The Varsity Basketball team experienced a rough and disappointing season as they were only able to record two victories. The Jags were plagued with several major problems: inconsistency, turnovers, and the lack of a guard who possessed both the ball handling and offensive scoring threat needed as well as adequate height necessary to control opposing guards.

These problems hindered the team throughout the regular season, but as the season closed the problems and inadequacies slowly disappeared. When time came and the pressure was on, the Jags succeeded in dealing Marshall the blow needed to end the Statesmen's dreams of capturing the district title. This reversed last year's trend of a 500 season ending in defeat as the district tournament opened up.

The Jags were within one game of going to the Regional Tournament when they met the Madison Warhawks and lost a heartbreaker in the second overtime period by a score of 57-55. The close defeat was almost what was needed to sweep into oblivion the disastrous regular season. There is little significance in the final analysis to a strong regular season performance for it is not considered as the all important tournament starts. At that point and where it was absolutely necessary, the Jags got together and did what was needed to win. This final surge toward the District Championship will be remembered by students and will impress upon them the ultimate importance of the District Tournament.

JV: Kneeling: Randy Hamilton, Mgr.; Curly Lee, Donald Denny, Chris Brooks, Barry Cuffee, Gene Bastian, Craig Morris, Scott Coal; Standing: Brian Mason, Tim Harris, Craig Rhew, Ashley Sharman, Paul Holland, Andy Black, Russell Barton.

The JV Basketball team was blessed with one of the best defenses in the region. This strong point was exploited to the greatest extent as they were able to hold opposing teams to an average of 49.6 points a game.

The team started off the season slowly, losing several games, but under the constant guidance of Coach Tom Whitworth they improved continually until they possessed a consistent as well as explosive offense. Offensively, the team was led by Ashley Sharman and Craig Rhew. They were able to give the Jags the scoring needed to overcome opposing teams in close games.

The climax was reached during the final game of the season, when the Jags dealt the Fairfax Rebels a 6-4 loss. It will be remembered as one of the lowest scoring games in basketball history. The Jags displayed the great poise necessary to win in an all out stall game. They were able to hold the ball effectively for a great part of the game after Fairfax tried unsuccessfully to hold the ball.

Mike Angellini shoots over the arms of two opponents.

The Freshman Basketball team rounded up its season with a 3-9 record. The failure of the team to record a winning season was partially due to the late football season. This caused practice to start more than a month later than other schools and showed as the season opened up. Coach Wally Ake accounted "the late opening and the inability of the team to consistently play together" as their downfall. The greatest triumph accomplished was the teaching and mastering of the man-to-man defense, a talent which will certainly be exploited on the JV level.

The people expected to form a strong JV and later go on to varsity are Bobby Lamon, Jim Lynch, Mark Kalisch, who have improved greatly during the course of the season, and Mike Grayson, Jim Seaman, Mike Angelini, John Reese, Nick Kopack, and Dick Wilson.

Varsity Gains Experience For Next Year

VARSlTY: Standing: Kandi Ponton, Frances Collins, Carol Daniels, Martha Metcalfe, Miss Reynolds, Jane Scott, Kathy Cunningham, Denise Stanley; Kneeling: Pam Ryon, Mary Ellen Bennett, Pam Foltz.

The Girl's Varsity Basketball was composed of a relatively young team consisting of four seniors and seven juniors. The season was not an outstanding one as the team only won four games, but experience was gained for the juniors — which should help next year.

The team was led by Mary Ellen Bennett who averaged in double figures throughout the season. Pam Foltz was well known for being an outstanding defensive guard. Offensively, the team was aided by the sharp shooting of Pam Ryan who supplied the needed points when the team's momentum slowed.

Close team play and the ability to overcome the pressures associated with any popular sport were the attributes of this team. Next year, with the adoption of a new district, the team should fair well and impress all avid sports fans with the excellent quality of play and excitement involved in the game.

The girl's Junior Varsity Basketball team enjoyed a good season, winning six games out of twelve played. They were led by four players who each displayed their own characteristics. Greta Wimmer was known for her leadership qualities on the floor, and Carla Thompson was known for being an excellent defensive ball player. Vicki Simpson and Cathy Fritz teamed up together to lead the team in the scoring department.

The season started off slow but as play continued, the team picked up momentum and poise until they were able to beat any team in the district as shown by their winning the last three games. Coach Jill English was impressed by her team's rapid improvement and excellent talent displayed throughout the year.

Carla Thompson dribbles past her opponent.

Greta Wimmer receives a pass.

Indoor Track Has Undeclared Season

Pat Sullivan keeps in the lead as he makes his way around the gym.

The Indoor Track team finished its season with a very outstanding record of 4-0, with wins over Marshall, Madison, Stuart, and Fairfax. On January 5, the Jags for the first time ever participated in the CYO meet at the University of Maryland: Semi-final winners were, junior, Dave Gatton in the 60 yd. dash, senior, Jim Hixon in the 60 high hurdles, and senior, Phil Harrison in the 600 yd. run. Senior, Scott Stout placed 3rd in the finals of the pole vault with a jump of 12'6".

The Indoor Track team also participated in the Navy Academy Invitational. There, Phil Harrison finished among the top 10 out of 600 runners, as he turned in an outstanding time of 1 minute, 16.8 sec. This was the 3rd fastest time of all of the Va. High School athletes entered. The team placed 3rd in District Championships and advanced to Regionals.

Jody Rudicille anxiously awaits the signal to begin his race.

Swim Team Has Limited Season and Cancelled Meets Due to Gas Shortage

In February several swimmers went to East Carolina University to compete in the Eastern Seaboard Regional Swimming Championships. This meet consisted of the best swimmers on the East Coast. State Championships were held in March at UVA. The entire team competed in this meet and fared quite well.

Mrs. Sandy Treadway, Coach, believes that with a larger turnout next year the team could capture the Potomac District title.

Outstanding swimmers were Mike LaRow and Geoff Brunner, Seniors; Sarah Sykes, Sophomore; and Ann Browder, Freshman.

The swim team had a very limited season. Due to the natural gas shortage, 3 of the meets were cancelled. However the team went 2-2.

GYMNASTS SHOW REAL TALENT

Sharon Farnsworth, Larry Watkins, Laurie Utterback, Janet Howard, Martha Campbell, Eveylyn Greene, Linda Anderson, Beth Fortner, Kelly Legate, Cheryl Friedman. Second Row: Mrs. Gouley.

The 1977 Gymnastics Team, taking Oakton, Stuart, and Fairfax and losing only to Madison and Marshall, ended their season with a 3-2 record. Many of the winning meets were led by Seniors Linda Anderson on beam, Kelly Legate on floor ex. and vaulting, and Beth Fortner on the unevens. The all around gymnast was Cheryl Friedman, showing excellence in all eight routines. The Gymnastics Team had both a very successful and exciting year.

Golf Team Tees Off Their Season

Golf Team: Kneeling: Tom Keller, David Harding, Craig Wien, Robbie Mowson; Standing: Mr. Beto, Neil Kyle, Bill Hall, Danny Hoover, Scott Sieck.

With the retirement of Col. McDaniel, who coached last year's golf team, the boys now look to Mr. Beto for assistance. The team looks forward to another successful season. Returning golfers are: Jim Cole, Tom Keller, Craig Wien and Scott Seick.

Craig Wien sends the ball flying with a mighty swing.

Tom Keller shows excellent form as he is caught a split second before meeting the ball.

Rifle Team Steadily Improves

Kathy Savage and Dorcas Rodgers confer with Miss Comeau.

The members of the Rifle Team, coached for the sixth year by Miss Ellen Comeau, strived for perfection. Throughout the year, the shooters practiced and improved their shooting skills. Against tough competition from other schools the team could not achieve a winning season, but it is steadily increasing its score.

The rifle match consists of thirty shots from three different positions with a time limit of thirty-six minutes. Each shot has a maximum point value of ten, so each shooter has a possible total of three-hundred points. The combined score of four of the team members constitutes the total team score.

Varsity Soccer Displays Experience And Skill

The Varsity Soccer team was split into an A and a B team this year. They had an A team and a B team instead of a Junior Varsity team to make room for more flexibility and mobility within the two teams. Coach Rike worked out with the A team and Coach Whitney worked out with the B team.

Practice started February 10th. They had many scrimages with other schools up until their first game. They played ten different schools during their season. Their games started at 7:30 under the lights.

The A team had nine returning letterman from last year's Varsity. The team was aided by the skills of senior, Mark Gardiner and juniors, Steve Graine and Franco Falvo. This experience helped them to perform as one of the best teams in the area.

The B team was a very young team. As the season progressed improvement was clearly evident. Because the team was very young, they should return next year showing even more strength.

Steve Graine, defensive halfback, receives a pass.

The B Team Practices Hard And Gains Experience

The B team

Front Row: Dwight Day, Bruce Pommer, Jay Whaley, Mark Crysinski, Nam Cho, Jose Malazo, Jeff Rosenberg, Ken Ryder. Second Row: Craig Lowrance, Zar Khan, Sjouren Tashjian, Jeff Meeker, Golmohamad Khan, Floyd Westbrook, Andre Evans, Mike Simmons, Coach Whitney (not pictured: Julio Herrera, David Rohr, Lennie Lawrence, Wesley Chung, James Tim, Chris Tschida, Ancisar Penafiel)

Jose Malazo uses his head to pass the ball to Golmohamad Khan.

Nam Cho dribbles the ball down the field with Mike Simmons in the wing.

The Soccer Program Expands And Gains Fame

Rick Potts, halfback, makes a good defensive play.

Dave Kerns, goalie, clears the ball.

Jose Malazo keeps his balance as he raises the ball.

Franco Falvo keeps his toes on the ball.

First Year For Girl's Soccer Attracts Attention

Jeanne LaViolette free throws from the sideline.

Falls Church High School presented its first girl's soccer team this year opening the official season with a victory over Fairfax High. Coached by Mr. Bakeman, enthusiastic tryouts led to the formation of three teams. The A team was the starting team consisting of eighteen players and one manager. The AB team followed made up of upcoming players, and the B team provided additional back-up, working out and practicing skills. The season continued with games against Stuart, Madison, Oakton, Marshall, and McLean.

Mary Palmer dribbles down the field with Pam Powell as back-up.

Returning Varsity Lettermen Make for Powerful Baseball Team

The Varsity Baseball team showed well this year. The team's strong point was the return of Jimmy Simpson at shortstop, Steve Bourne in the outfield, Billy Epling at first base, and Jeff Wagoner at second base. All of these returning lettermen were good hitters which tremendously helped the team's scoring power.

The possible setbacks were the lack of an experienced pitcher and the absence of Mike McNevin as catcher. Under the direction of Coach McCulloch the team managed to use their good speed, good hitting, and excellent defense to make up for their weak points.

Coach McCullough nonchalantly checks out the team.

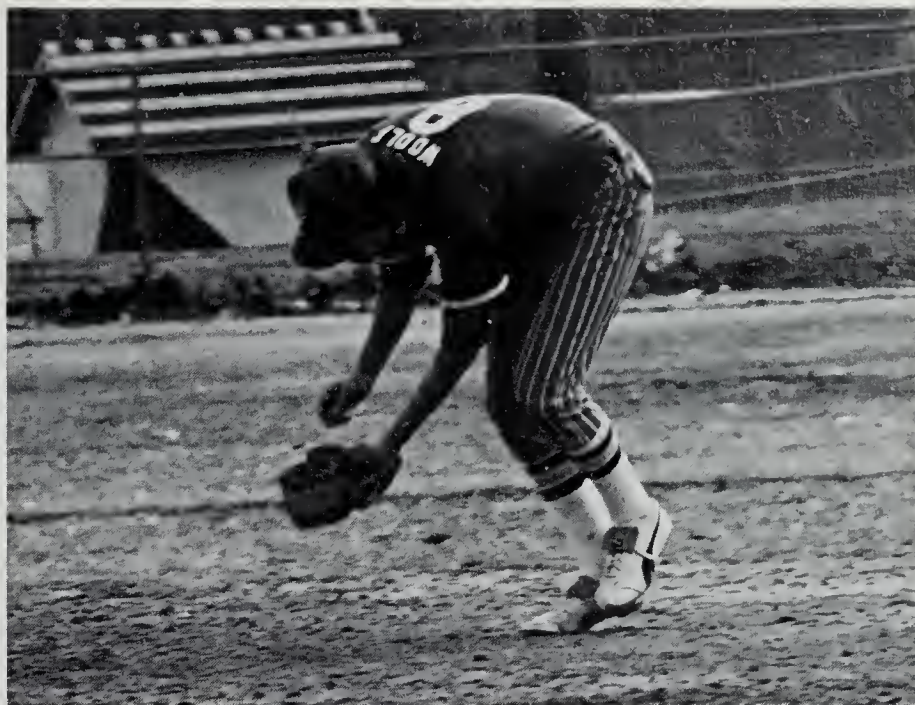

Billy Epling and Larry Eppard make use of the pitching machine during practice.

Jeff Wagoner lets loose with a mighty swing.

Robby Woolf picks up a grounder.

Determination can be seen on the face of Jimmy Simpson as he hurls one out.

Steve Bourne sends the ball flying into the outfield.

Jeff Harris warms up before a game.

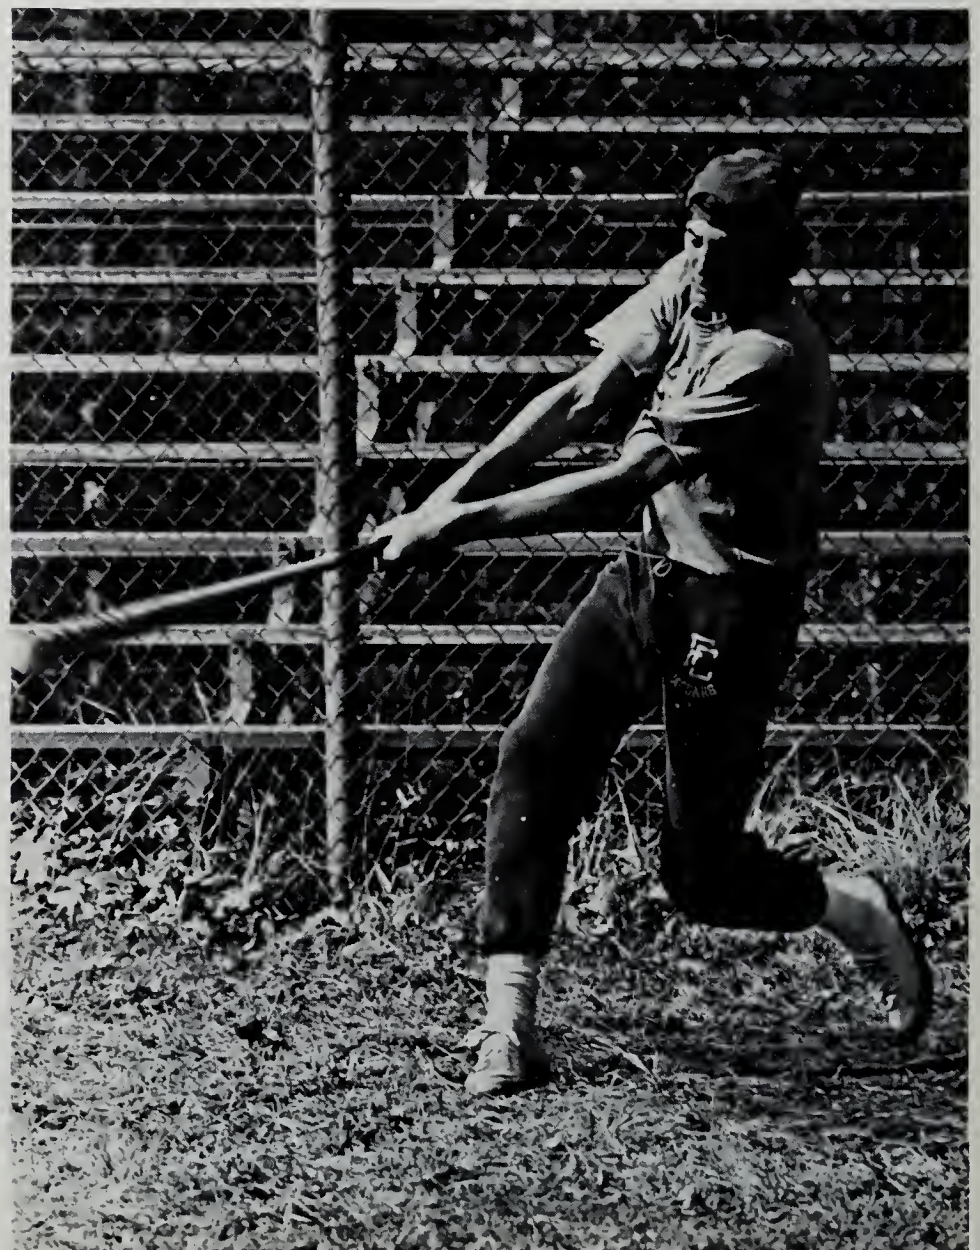

Larry Eppard shows perfect swinging form.

Darrin White and John Baer hurl the balls.

Andy Hendrickson munches out before a game.

Billy Epling whacks another one out.

JV Baseball Gains Valuable Experience

J.V. Baseball: Kneeling: Bobby Lamon, Jim Cassidy, Charlie Jensen, Jimmy Slusher, John Coffin, Dean Southee, Mark Weekly; Standing: Barry France, Don Bealby, Mike Reeves, Larry Grandy, Marshall O'Shields, Rick McCaulley, Glen Beach, Coach Herb.

The Junior Varsity Baseball team had many of the same members as last year's team. Coached by Mr. Herb they used their skills and experience to produce a powerful team.

The outstanding J.V. players were Jeff Harris, Andy Hendrickson, Robert Wolfe, Scott Rowland, and Scott Reeves. These guys also posed as a strong Varsity back-up squad. Because of these outstanding juniors, next year's Varsity should be a dominate team in our district.

Scott Rowland hurls the ball into right field.

John Coffin makes it safely to third base.

Varsity Softball Benefits from Experienced Returning Players

The girl's Varsity Softball team did very well this year. They had good speed, good hitters, good defense, a good pitcher, and a good catcher. The returning letterwomen from last year's Varsity gave the team the experience which is so important in competition.

The team's strong points were Mary Ellen Bennett's hitting ability, Sharon Rutherford's pitching, Sassy Schaffstall's skill and quickness as catcher, and Pam Foltz's quickness and agility at shortstop.

Coach English knew many of the girl's from coaching J.V. the year before. As Varsity coach she knew the team's strong and weak points and guided them toward a successful season.

Brenda Schindler heads toward base.

Sassy Schaffstall prepares to slam the ball.

Pam Foltz warms up before the game.

Mary Ellen Bennett takes another cut at the ball.

Carol Hilleary makes another out.

Pitcher, Sharon Rutherford, whips another one across the plate.

New Talent Discovered on JV Softball

J.V. Softball: Kneeling: Debbie Allison, Carla Thompson, Teri Elwood, Vicky Simpson, Patti Christie, Valerie Paul, Cindy Baber; Standing: Nanny Johnson, Terry Lee, Dawn Bosworth, Miss Judy Burt, Coach; Miss Sandy Reynolds, Coach; Mary Cunningham, Rosemary Collins, Brenda Turner.

The Junior Varsity Softball team was coached by Miss Reynolds. The team consisted of several girls from last year's J.V. team but also some new girls.

The season began at the end of March. One of their costly setbacks was their lack of an experienced pitcher. As the season progressed, though, everyone gained more experience and sharpened their skills.

The team did have a lot of good speed and strong hitting ability. By taking advantage of these strong points and improving their weak points they completed a fairly successful season.

Coaches Sandy Reynolds and Judy Burt look on as Patti Christi catches against Madison.

Mary Cunningham lets loose with a mighty pitch.

Tennis Team Returns For The Season

Coached for the first year by Guy Wilson, the tennis team played well this year. Many members from last year's team returned with helpful experience. With confidence the team competed against Madison, Fairfax, Marshall, Stuart, and Oakton. As the season went on each team member improved.

Gregg Greenfield anxiously awaits the return.

Ted Magsig can not remember whether he is supposed to hit the ball or catch it.

Girls Track Has Large Membership

Once again spring track brought out a large number of interested girls. Coach Gooley held practice everyday after school starting in March. The majority of the track membership carried over from last year. Because of this the team did very well this year. They are a young team, though, and will be expected to be a district power with a little more experience.

"Only one more lap to go," they think gratefully.

Carolyn Patterson's "got the beat."

Courtenay Twinam and Lisa Best demonstrate that running is a tiresome sport.

Spring Track Takes Third in District

Spring Track: Front row: Pat Sullivan, Marty Cunningham, Craig Day, Phil Harrison, Jeff Artman, Homer McElroy; Second row: Jim Stannard, Allen Dacanay, Matt Murray, Greg Graham, Sam Bailey, Jody Rudacille, Tony Jones, Steve Byers; Third row: Scott Vanderwal, Tom Rodriguez, Sam Brown, Greg Tennell, Joe Copley, Jim Seaman, Jim Miller; Not pictured: Dave Gatton, Scott Stout.

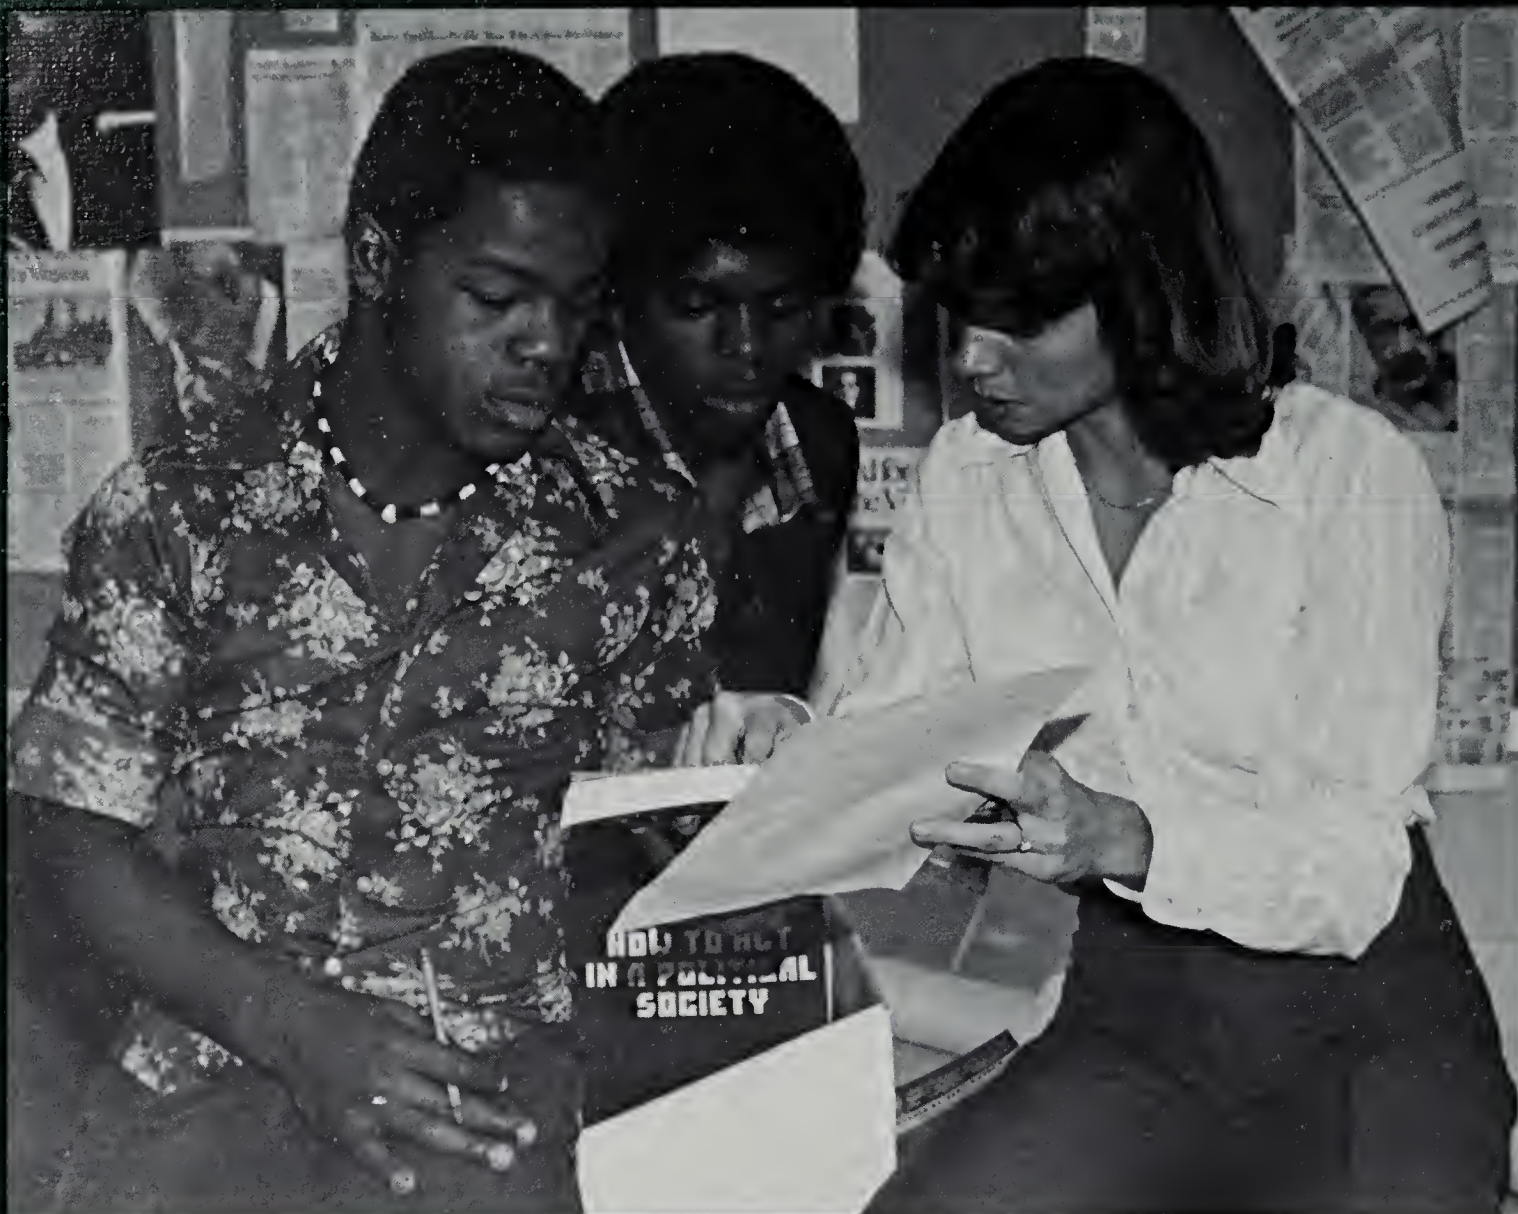

Scott Stout shows fine pole vaulting technique.

The Falls Church Track team practiced rigorously under the direction of Coach Wells and Coach Morris. Conditioning was done out on the track or inside in the gym lobby. Hard work paid off as the team's strength and endurance increased.

The track team strides right.

ADMINISTRATION HEADS UP FC

The Administration of Falls Church High School plays an important part in a student's four years of study. Mr. Stepp and Mr. Powell joke, punch, and generally hassle their way into the hearts of the students of Falls Church. The relationship we students have with our administrators is one of working informality.

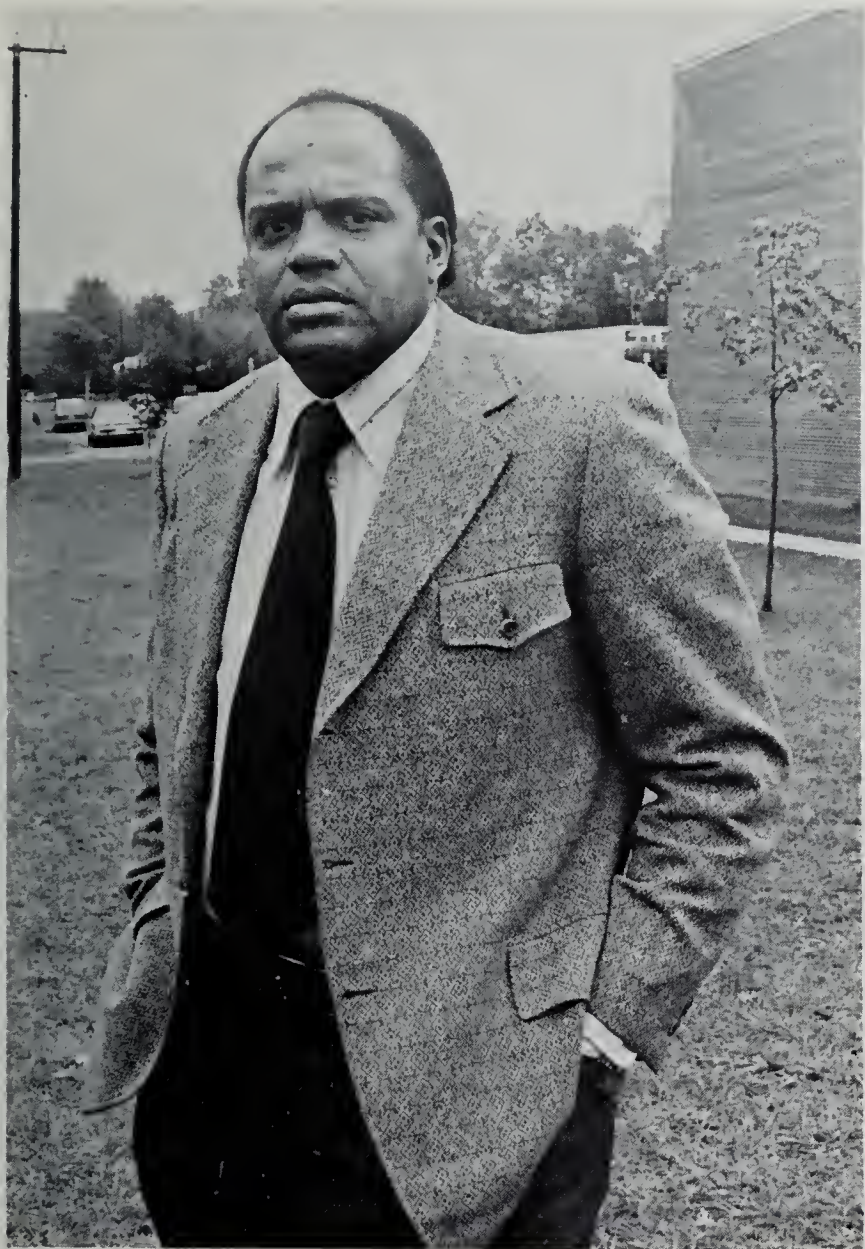

There are new faces in the administration this year. Mr. Mueller, the ninth grade administrator and Ms. Weisgerber, the tenth grade administrator are now familiar faces in the halls. Mr. Hollowell, the school's new Athletic and Student Activities Director promises to be a valuable addition to the administration as he works to improve the quality of Falls Church's various activities.

The quality and atmosphere with which the administration works leaves lasting impressions of trust on the students of Falls Church.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT DE-CENTRALIZES

In view of the increased enrollment, the guidance department took on a new approach to aiding the students. The introduction of the grade centers into the guidance program has greatly relieved the complications usually experienced in handling late arrivals, early dismissals, and absences. To reduce the confusion of report card distribution, specific areas were established for each of the four grades.

The guidance department with the help of the new grade centers has greatly aided the students in forming directed impressions.

A school could not survive without its secretaries. Falls Church is no exception. It is an exception, though, when they receive credit for a job well done. Whether they are sorting out the morning's absences, frantically writing early dismissals, or satisfying demanding administrators, they are never flustered. The secretaries impress visitors as well as faculty and students as pillars of hard work.

A NEW TWO-HOUR BLOCK COURSE ADDED TO ENGLISH CURRICULUM

11th and 12th grade English teachers: Mr. John Loving, Ms. Sharon McDaniel, Mr. Kenneth Lawrence, Ms. Betsy Harris, Mr. Tom Brogan, Ms. Jane Bialas, Mrs. Margaret Fitzgerald, Mrs. Mary Shearon

Mrs. Fitzgerald — "I'm amazed we're teaching 103 Humanities students. I think it's great this many people are putting out an effort to learn."

Reading teachers; Mrs. Hala Meiser, Ms. Karen Syvrud

In addition to its existing variety of courses, the English department has added two new selections to the curriculum. In cooperation with the Social Studies department, a two-hour block course entitled Contemporary Civ has been established, enabling sophomore to continue advanced studies in Social Studies and English. This completes the four year accelerated program consisting of World Civ, Contemporary Civ, American Civ, and Humanities. In order to allow students to increase their writing abilities, Journalism II has been added as a continuance of Journalism I. The responsibility of the Jaguar Journal production rested solely on the shoulders of the Journalism II class and teacher-sponsor Mr. Whitworth.

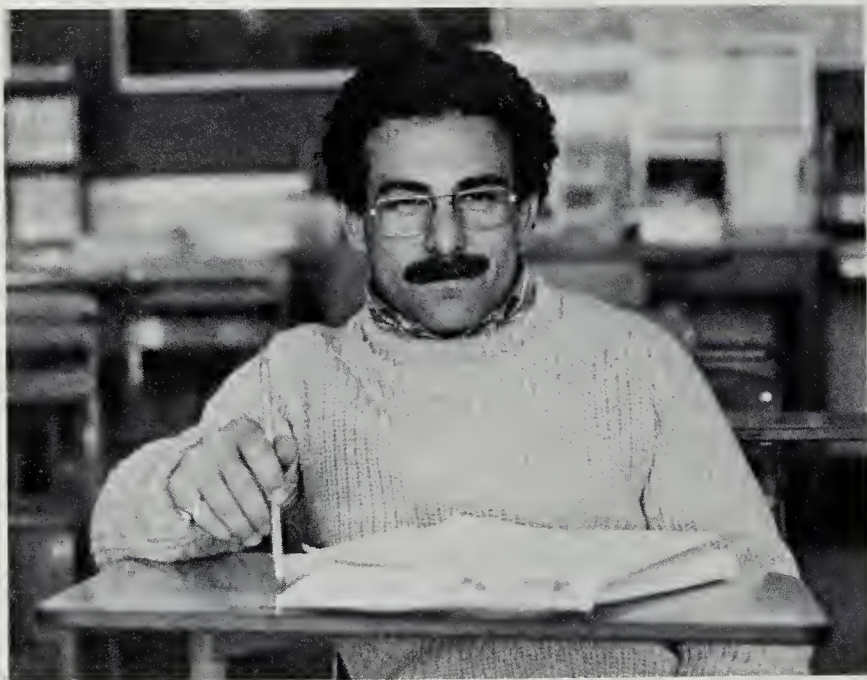

Thanks to the reading specialists, students were able to take a mini-course to improve their PSAT-SAT verbal scores. In its variety and extent of courses, the English department has impressed upon the students the significance of reading and expressing their thoughts well.

SOCIAL STUDIES STRIVE TO IMPROVE

History teachers: Sitting: Mrs. Carolyn Harper, Va.-U.S. History; Miss Elizabeth McGill, World History, Va.-U.S. Government; Mrs. Elvera Welk, Psychology, German III, IV; Mr. Alphonsus McCafferty, World Geography; Mr. Kenneth Whitlock, Va.-U.S. Government, History; Mr. William Yount, Va.-U.S. Government; Mr. John Murphy, American Civilization, Economics, Va.-U.S. History; Mrs. Theresa Michaels, World History, Contemporary Civ., Sociology; Mr. Ed Hamilton, World Geography, Va.-U.S. Government; Mrs. Carolyn Elder, Spanish II, Va.-U.S. History; Mr. Douglas Bursch, World Geography, Va.-U.S. History; Ms. Elizabeth Wilson, Va.-U.S. History; Mr. Lawrence Dowell, English 11, Humanities.

Social Studies

Working on ways to improve the department has been a basic factor of the Social Studies department. The latest improvement has been the addition of the two-hour block courses. Mr. John Murphy, chairman of the department, feels "students have a real good opportunity to pursue their ideas." He also believes students are "becoming more academically aware". The two-hour courses impress Mr. Murphy as being definitely beneficial to the academically inclined students. The senior government classes put emphasis on the workings of the government and current events. Special emphasis was placed on the elections and the transition to the presidency.

Through studies of American history, government, and philosophies, students were able to form realistic impressions of the American lifestyle.

Mrs. Wilma Hamilton, World History, World Civilization

Mr. John Morris, Va.-U.S. History, World History

MATH PREPARES MINI-COURSE FOR SAT'S

Mr. Arthur Lillevig, Algebra II, Vocational Math; Mr. Richard Newsome, Calculus AB-BC, Algebra II; Mrs. Sandy Jones, Algebra I, Geometry, General Math; Mr. Bruce Cambell, Algebra II, General Math; Ms. Elizabeth Foland, Algebra I, General Math; Mrs. Mary Carlsen, Functions-Analytic Geometry, General Math, Geometry; Mrs. Janice Stubin, Trigonometry, Computer Science I and II. Mrs. Carolyn Haynie, Geometry, Algebra I, General Math; Mrs. Sally Rovitti, General Math, Algebra II-Trig, Trig-Functions; Mr. Hohn Whitney, Algebra I, II, Consumer Math, Geometry.

In general, the math teachers of FCHS seem to feel that the atmosphere has improved considerably in the school. There seems to be fewer discipline problems and the student attitude is better. New courses in the math department include Basic Math and Vocational Math. In addition, it was possible to have 2 separate Calculus classes this year for the first time. The BC Calculus group can now receive instruction separate from the AB Calculus group. This Decision seemed popular with the Calculus students.

The math department has aided students by offering a general review of the basic math concepts needed for the SAT. The math department is concerned with impressing upon the students the need of expanding their basic mathematical concepts.

SCIENCE ADDS NEW COURSE

Science department: Mr. John Spencer, Biology I, BSCSsm; Mrs. Armetha Corbin, Physics, Chemistry II; Mrs. Leona Heuer, Biology, Chemistry I, Prob. Nat. Wld; Mrs. Carolyn Schotter, Earth Science; Mrs. Betty Havard — Department Chairman, Chemistry; Mr. Richard Lunsford, Biology I, Mrs. Carolyn Canzano, Biology II, Chemistry I; Mrs. Billie Jean Abell, Biology I, Horticulture; Mr. Carl Ring, Biology I; Mr. James Rike, Earth Science, Prob. Nat. World.

The Science Department in its endeavor to supply courses of student interest has added a Chemistry II course. It has also revised the ninth grade science course, Earth and Space Science. Mrs. Havard says, "enrollment is up this year." This is indicative of the interest students have in science and of the courses being offered. The students are impressed with the idea that as their interests expand, so does the curriculum.

Sometimes Mr. Rike just can't face his class.

Mr. Lunsford instructs this student in the science of smiling.

THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT HELPS STUDENTS DEVELOP SPECIALIZED SKILLS

Mr. Donald Coghlan, D.E. 2,3; Miss Carol Lobi, Fashion Merchandise 1,2; Mr. John Hughes, D.E. 1,2; Mrs. June Hartell, WECEP; Mr. Roy Hawkins D.E. 2; Mrs. Barbara Stalensky, Cosmetology 1,2.

Students master the art of hair styling in cosmetology.

Mrs. Marilyn Whiteside, Beg. Typing, Introduction, office Practice; Mrs. Dorothea Laird, Personal Typing, Beg. Typing, Introduction Business; Mrs. Arlene Fallaw, Beg. Typing, Adv. Typing, Shorthand; Miss Susan Scott, Steno 1, Beg. Typing, Personal Typing; Miss Eleanor Ruddle, Steno 2, Clerk Typing 2; Miss Judy Ailes, Bookkeeping, Clerk Typing 1; Miss Carolyn Haynie, Steno 1, Beg. Typing.

There are many courses being offered at Falls Church which are directed toward further study in various business fields. Cosmetology, Typing 1, Advanced Typing and Distributive Education are these. They combine to form what is called the Business Department. These courses leave lasting impressions on many of the students lives as they go on to use their acquired skills.

I wonder what message they are trying to get across.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEVELOP PRACTICAL SKILLS.

Mr. John Locascio, Industrial Arts; Mr. Robert Little, General Maintenance I,II; Mr. Joe Scango, Auto Mechanics I,II; Mr. Dwight Mosser, Electronics I, T.V. Repair I,II; Mr. Robert Becker, Industrial Arts I,II.

Mr. Harvey Cooper, Mechanical Drawing I, Architectural Drawing, Engineering Drawing

Mr. Scango shows Danny Wade and Carl House the parts of this engine.

Industrial Arts provides opportunities of study for students who possess a desire to work with their hands. An increasing number of people are turning to occupations requiring manual skills. Updated equipment and a three hour Auto-Mechanics course are features which will improve on an already fine Industrial Arts program. Whether Industrial Arts is taken as a base for a career, or as a change from academic studies, the student leaves the class impressed with the importance of being able to apply practical skills.

STUDENTS ENJOY CO-ED PROGRAM

Boy's P.E. department: Mr. James Thorpe, P.E. 9,10; Mr. Robert Herb, P.E. 9; Mr. Walter Ake, P.E. 10; Mr. Al McCulloch, P.E. 10,11

Ms. Sandra Reynolds, P.E. 10,11,12

Girl's P.E. department: Mrs. Ann Bellos, P.E. 9; Mrs. Alice Gooley, P.E. 9; Ms. Patsy Jones, P.E. 9,10

Physical Education at Falls Church High School is rapidly becoming a full time co-educational program. Begun last year, co-ed gym now comprises one half to two-thirds of the Physical Education classes. According to P.E. teacher Miss Gooley, "The students seem to enjoy the co-ed classes more." For the students who enjoy this program, there is good news; all the physical education classes will be co-ed next year. This will undoubtedly leave a lasting impression on the school.

The Arts Provide for a Creative Atmosphere

Ms. Linda Landbloom, Photo I, Art I; Mr. Yates Miller, Art I, II, III; Ms. Jean Adams, Art

The Home Economics department, under the direction of Mrs. Carol Broady, offered various courses to develop the domestic needs of students. One of the most popular was Bachelor Living, offered to junior and senior boys. It covered interior decor for a single man, practical consumer problems, preparation of foods, sewing individual projects, and living in society.

"Party Foods" taught students how to prepare food for any type of social gathering. Many baked goods for activities within the school were produced by students in this course.

Mrs. Carol Broady, Food Service, Contemporary Living, Sewing for Pleasure I, II, Home Ec. I; Mrs. Helen LaViolette, Home Ec. I, Sewing for Pleasure I, II, Basic Foods, Party Foods; Mrs. Ann Nordness, Home Ec. I, II, Marriage and the Family, Child Development, Needlework, Consumer Problems.

Mrs. Broady instructs students in preparing balanced menus.

The Drama department planned five productions this year, one of which was the musical, "The Boy-Friend," the first to be produced in four years. To increase interest in drama, Mr. Allen has included novices in the production of many plays.

The Music department succeeded in attracting many students with its broad curriculum which included Music Theory, Stage Band, Orchestra, and Intermediate and Advanced Band.

The Art department, in an attempt to promote student awareness, developed the concept of the "art of living." Mr. Miller feels that this type of teaching "is helping the students to enjoy the world around them and influencing them to enhance their environment."

By providing the students with an outlet for their creativity, the Fine Arts department has enabled the students to channel their ideas through specific talents to produce different impressions.

ESL HELPS FOREIGN STUDENTS TO LEARN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

The many ethnic groups involved in English as a Second Language were taught to cope with American society through this program. The 85 students in ESL were divided into four levels. The first level dealt with English basics — elementary grammar, writing, and pronunciation. The second and third levels were of similar caliber, dealing with reading, vocabulary, and grammar. The fourth level was the largest and most advanced. It was divided into Seniors and underclassmen. This level “reinforced what the students were doing in their regular English classes.” The college-bound seniors were aided in studying for the TOEFL tests which would help them gain admittance to the college of their choice.

Through participation in this program, the ESL students were able to form favorable impressions of Falls Church High.

LEARNING A LANGUAGE CAN BE FUN

Foreign Language department: Mrs. Monick, Spanish 1,2; Mr. James Ochse, Spanish 1,2, Latin 1,2,4; Mrs. Deborah Corkey, French 2,3,4,5; Mrs. Carlyn Elder, Spanish 2, Va.-US History; Mr. William Hayden, Spanish 3,4,5; Mrs. Lois Forry, Spanish 1, French 2; Mrs. Sharon Walbridge, French 1,2,3

Many revisions have been made in the foreign language program. In levels I, II and III of Spanish, students are learning the basic grammatical structure of the language. In the more advanced classes, IV and V, more literature is studied and emphasis is placed on speaking ability. The third and fourth year Latin and German students were combined into one class and their learning is structured. Courses in the French department have been revised to emphasize French culture more than literature. Along with grammar, French levels III, IV, and V classes are learning about the 35 French speaking countries other than France. By studying other cultures, the foreign language department has enabled students to form impressions of foreign life and to better understand our own culture.

Mrs. Walbridge teaches French culture to her students.

The Special Services deserve the thanks of the student body. The ADP department provides the students with schedules and locker combinations. They also aid the yearbook staff during yearbook sales.

The Library staff should be commended for their fine organization and help.

For those students who need special help in their English skills can turn to our PLP teachers and speech teachers. The Driver's Education program is also a very important, invaluable service which directly effects the majority of the student body.

SENIOR CLASS PROVES ITS SUPERIORITY

'77

Archie Borgus, President

Scott Bono, Vice-President

Senior, the magical word which means privileges, superiority and one more year of high school was finally the name of the class of '77.

The privileges were an illusion. Seniors could leave class three minutes early for lunch and after each assembly an announcement was made that seniors were to leave before underclassmen. Announcements should be emphasized, for after assemblies the whole student body seemed to be composed of seniors.

However, that did not seem to matter as much because the seniors knew of their superiority over underclassmen and did not need to demonstrate it.

Throughout the school seniors sighed and struggled their way through their final year of high school.

Forever proud, the seniors opened the year with a tie for first place in the homecoming float competition with their entry "Brew Up a Victory." In keeping with their past monetary success, the senior Sadie Hawkins Characters, with nine added members, grubbed for over $1,000 — by far a record for Falls Church.

The senior class showed their support and appreciation for Falls Church's winning football team when WNVT-TV delivered an ultimatum that unless $250 was raised they would not be able to televise the state championship game. As usual the resourceful seniors rose to the occasion, raising $100 towards the fund.

Towards the middle of the year, the seniors set themselves to the task of ordering graduation announcements, caps and gowns and class keys. The most important task, of course, was the sending of applications to colleges and universities throughout the country with anxious hopes of acceptances and seeking out of jobs or careers after graduation.

The ever wealthy seniors also sponsored the variety show and the April dance and, of course, their own graduation.

Where graduation was to take place was a problem for the second year straight. As Wolftrap was not available, it was finally decided that the most important event of the senior's four years of high school would take place at their own Webber Stadium. There were some disappointments, but it seemed a fitting end that graduation should be at the place where so much of their lives had been spent.

The seniors have spent four years of an impressionable time of their lives at Falls Church High School. Habits have been formed, and personalities have been molded. Impressions, both positive and negative, have had a lasting effect on the class of '77.

Seniors Choose Outstanding Classmates With Senior Superlatives

Most Likely to Succeed: Mike LaRow, Kathy Hartell

Most Dependable: Carol Kondracki, David Tolman

Best All Around: Archie Borgus, Jamie Baylis

Rowdiest: Norman Burwick, Beth Fortner

Most Athletic: Charlie Gray, Pam Foltz

"To me, being a senior means ending four years of my life that have given me many enjoyable experiences, all of which will never be forgotten, while looking ahead to the opportunities to come." — David Tolman "Being a senior in the year of '77 has been a great experience: after all, we do own this school." — Craig Wien "Being the 'class stud' has been a real trip. I've thoroughly enjoyed my outstanding achievements at Falls Church." — Bucky Methfessel "To me, being a senior means to approach a large number of crossroads; And with many friends going different ways, facing the decision of taking one of the many paths." — Ted Staples "Being a senior is being 'big and bad,' being somehow above everyone. It's a big ego trip, but I'll hate to leave because it has and will be fun." — Mark Danahy "Being a senior of the class of '77 means getting out of school earlier than everyone else, and deserving it. It means leaving our trace of the class of '77 for all to remember." — Yvonne Bennett "Being a senior means learning how to face the problems ahead, while cherishing the memories of the past four years, and applying the experiences of high school to the challenges of college." — Lori Richmond "As the year comes to a close and I look back on the past four years, I have mixed feelings about being a senior. I enjoy the privileges that I have now that I didn't have before. All in all though, this has been the best of my four years at F.C.H.S." — Jeannette Walters "Being a senior means leaving many good people and a great wrestling coach." — Mike Dejarnette "Being a senior means experiencing the joy of getting out earlier than the lower classmen." — Brad Lazarus "Four years at Falls Church has been a real 'rush' . . . 'Wow man!' — Norman Burwick "Being as modest as possible, I frankly believe that the senior class of '77 has been the best class Falls Church High has ever produced. Being a member of such a great class means that each and every one of us experiences that satisfaction of great personal honor and pride. There will be more great classes to come to F.C.H.S., but be assured that the class of '77 won't easily be forgotten." — Bob Dunn "Being a senior means your last year to be free. After this it's college or work. It's fun being a senior." — Vickie Edwards "The senior year yields many satisfactions; being the biggest flirt is but one." — Scott Sieck "Just a word of advice to the underclassmen, live your senior year with all the gusto you can." — Julie Gossom "I never let my schoolwork interfere with my education (Mark Twain)" — Scott Stout "Being a senior means having more time to party and having the best football team in the country." — Danny Stone "The first step to independence." — Patrice Rehrig "To me, being a senior means that four years of my life have ended, filled with memories of events and people which will never fade. It means that through the relationships and experiences encountered, I have the necessary skills and talents needed to exist in today's society." — Richie Russell "The feeling of being a senior is quite special to me. I have made special friends I will remember for the rest of my life. The experiences and situations in Falls Church, I think, has made me a better person. The Falls Church experience will help me later in life." — Claude Stark "Being a senior means being proud of my school because it has the best football team, band, and senior class there ever was." — Paula Rehrig "Being a senior to me means ending a long friendship." — Dagny Davis "Being a senior to me is the ending of one life, and the beginning of a new one." — Jill Bassett "Being a senior to me is; like wow, the greatest, really coolman, neato, far-out, dynamite, fantastic, bad and besides that, it is OK. It is like a long relationship, once it's over, there's no returning, but you'll always remember it." — Beth Fortner "Being a senior is both sad in leaving old acquaintances and exciting in anticipating new ones in college. I look forward now to meeting new challenges as well as friends." — Dianne Vandivier "Having it confirmed that the last year is the best." — Donna Fritz "Not having to make up snow days." — Pete Nassetta "An end and a beginning." — Bob Papke "Having busboys at lunch and collecting rent from Doc and George on our school." — Bob Powers "The end of childhood and a beginning of responsibilities for a good life." — Danny Martin "The senior year is a retrospective feeling for the past and apprehensive look to the future. (Thank God it's over!!)" — Roman Dial "The end of a lot of good times and the beginning of our life." — Jennifer Griggs "The senior year is another step in the long ladder of life." — Mark Gardiner "The senior year is a time to remember all that you have done, and to decide all of what you are planning to do." — Jono Lewis "Being a senior means the end of school (thank God) and finally going out to the real world." — Anonymous "To me, being a senior means that we have learned a part of the skills which will give us confidence to be a contributing member of society." — Craig Day "As every day comes to an end, a new day is dawning, and with it a new beginning. But if we ignore the possibilities of every today, what is the value of tomorrow?" — Lisa Harris "The future always comes before we're willing to give up the past!" — Erin Flynn "In my senior year of high school, I have found that people I thought were my friends weren't. At first, the idea of this being my last year at F.C. upset me. But now I know that I am ready to see the world. My senior year for me meant growing up and taking my stand in life." — Archie Borgus

Friendliest: Teddy Staples, Sandy Welch

Bobby Passino and Burt Clayborne amuse the onlookers by pulling down Mark Springston.

Freshman shop class provides a place for students to develop their skills.

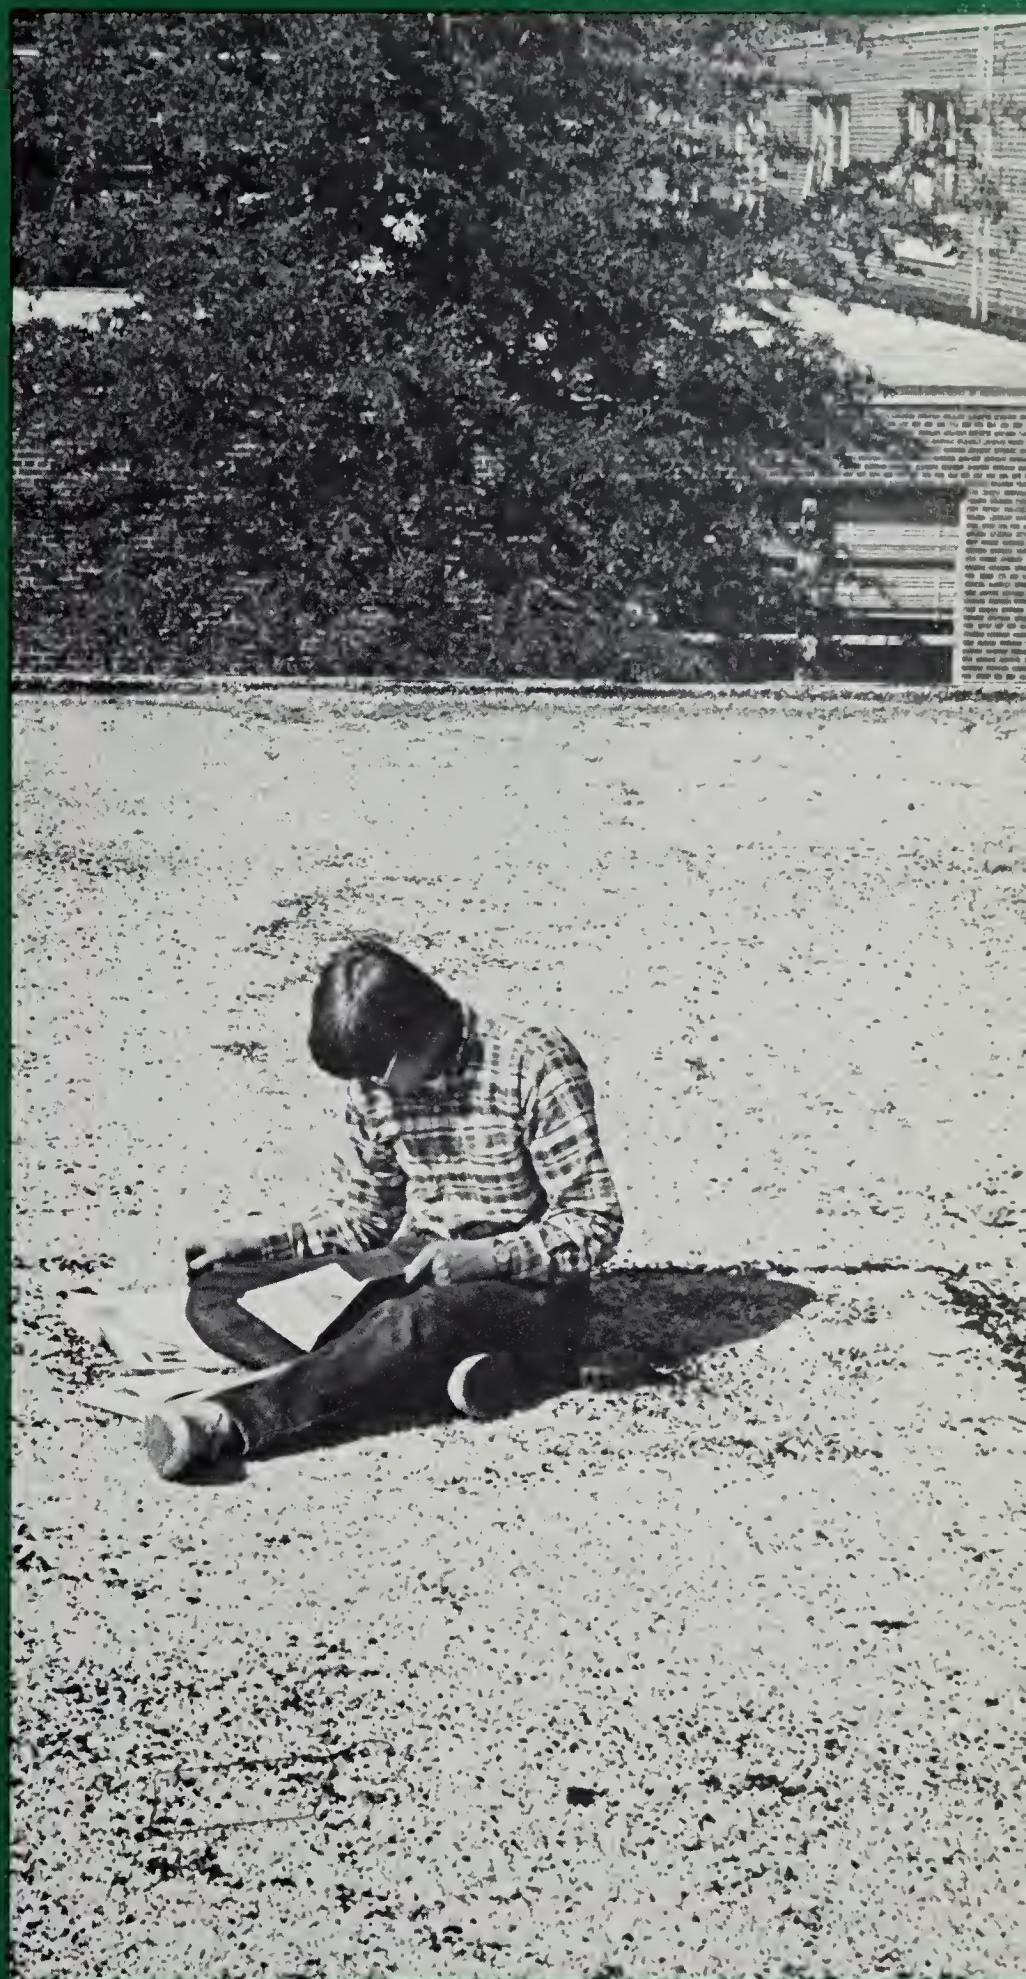

Each moment, whether learning, playing, or watching, provides an opportunity for each individual student to give or make his own impression.

Sharon Rutherford prepares to leave after working on the junior class float.

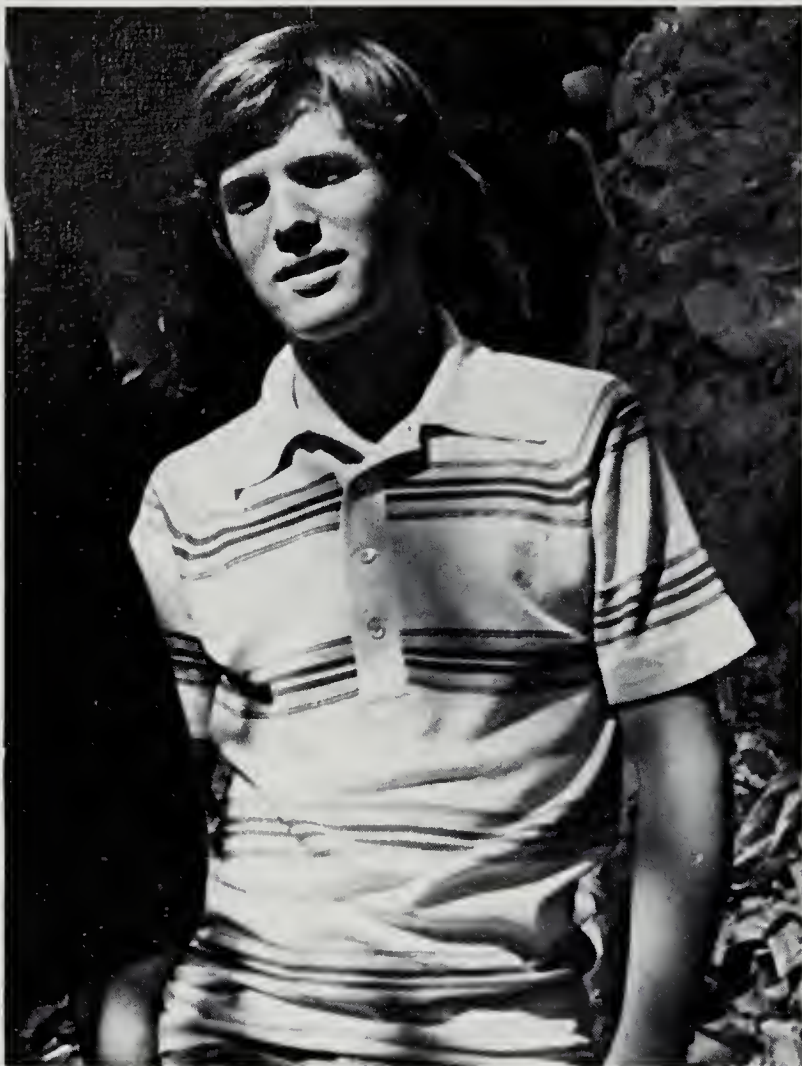

Ralph Turner goes to an extreme in seeking solitude to study.

STUDENTS

JUNIORS '78

Scott Cox, President

The Class of '78 started the year in a financially depressing state due to early Prom arrangements. They decided to "go all out" making reservations for one of the huge ballrooms at the Sheraton in Reston and making a contract with the band, "Hard Cider". In order to pay off their debts, they worked closely with their sponsor, Mr. Murphy, to obtain administrative approval to sell donuts to night classes at Falls Church and Madison. Among the many dances they sponsored were the now traditional Ring Dance and the Spring Dance. As usual, the dues drive brought in a large sum of money due to the procrastination of students in paying their dues.

The Class of '78 displayed exceptional spirit at football games, pep rallies, and during Pride Week and Homecoming float competition. The top prize of $15 was awarded to them for their decorated hall of aluminum bells. They also won an award for winning first place in float competition.

One of the many things that sets the Class of '78 apart from the other classes is their goal to obtain a permanent career education program within the curriculum. The juniors were also the first class ever to co-sponsor an assembly with the Student Government. The assembly, "Desparados", was an interesting film presentation with a musical sound track featuring the music of "America", which proved to be a huge success with the students.

After three years at Falls Church High School, the juniors have had time to look back and form a variety of impressions while still looking forward to making their final lasting impression.

SOPHOMORES '79

Under the leadership of returning president Patty Morrow, the sophomore class had a very successful year. The class displayed great amounts of enthusiasm and spirit during pep rallies as they won most of the competitions, and through the construction of their float for Homecoming. The float, "The Big Bad Wolf," depicted the story of The Three Little Pigs and fit right in with the theme of Fantasy and Make Believe.

Most sophomores anxiously await the end of their last year of physical education and the thrill of finally getting to take the all important behind-the-wheel course. Aside from this, the sophomores raised money through the dues drives, candy and bake sales, and the sponsoring of dances.

The anticipation of their coming junior year is deeply impressed on this class as they look forward to greater independence and junior status.

FRESHMEN '80

This is a different year for all Freshmen, Freshpersons, Freshpeople. They are in a new school with more privileges and more responsibility. They are meeting many new people and making new friends.

Gail Stine and Donna Strickland organized the Freshmen Orientation which proceeded with no complications. The first project for the Freshmen was the homecoming float. The nursery rhyme "Patty Cake, Patty Cake" allowed the freshmen to enter a world of fantasy. Archie Borgus, the Freshman advisor, helped them with their ideas. Mr. Mueller, the assistant principal for the Freshmen, helped them through their first year of high school without any major difficulties. The Freshmen had many ideas for raising money. Some were bake sales and car washes.

Even though it is only their first year at Falls Church High, the Freshmen have already begun to make an impression.

Ads

Advertisements serve two good purposes
First, they provide needed funds for this book
Second, they provide clubs or businesses
With the opportunity to attract people.
Ads give way to the improvement
Of each advertiser's overall
Impression.

Join the Forensics Team and Speak Out

Students are coached weekly by Mrs. Thomas in public speaking. There are seven categories: Poetry Reading, Prose Reading, Extemporaneous Speaking, Original Oratory, Impromptu, Original Works, and Dramatic Interpretation. The Forensics Team competes in competitions held monthly by the Northern Virginia Speech League and the Virginia High School League. Join this group and become a trophy winner.

. . . An Impression Comes As A Result

Teachers party in the English lounge.

Paula Rehrig, Linda Anderson, Beth Fortner: the new "Charlie's Angels."

Hey, who do you think you are? thinks Gigi Cashion.

Mr. McCarrol refuses to believe that bald is beautiful.

Buddy Patch wonders where his ball went.

How embarrassing!

Experiencing conflicts, surprises, togetherness, embarrassments, success, depression . . . endless moments — All comes with learning, growing, and changing. Formulating, altering, and upsetting an Impression comes as a result.

. . . Creates An Impression

Sean Noone shouts, "Come on in and have some fun."

Attending class, going out to lunch, getting together with friends to study, looking at the school from Different view-points — all create an Impression.

Students get together and share learning experiences.

Trish Dyer, Sheri Corbin, and Mary Palmer go to Mac's for lunch.

Sometimes I just feel like escaping.

These juniors enjoy a field trip.

Students explore different interests. Through field trips they expand their knowledge. They Learn skills from practice and experience. They Learn from one another. Upon themselves and others They produce an Impression.

Tryouts for the "Three Musketeers."

IMPRESSIONS . . .

School involvement comes in many forms. One of the most widespread activities is spectating and observing. The crowd itself is an Impression.

Winning raises school pride.
 Knowing you are doing your best
 Gives a sense of accomplishment.
 Some thrive on competition.
 Others are content to just do their best,
 And form an Impression in
 Their own mind of success.

Yesterday's impression forms memories
Today's impression forms emotions
Impressions of tomorrow form dreams
Constantly being influenced and influencing others
We cannot escape the meaning of
Impression
